FORTUNES MADE
HERE WHEN LEAD
CO. STOCK SOARS

Holders of Shares in St. Joseph Lead Co. Big Beneficiaries Due to Advance in Price of Ore.

STOCK OF $10 PAR
NOW AROUND $43.50

Was Down to $17 in 1923 and $22.75 in 1924—Firm Desloge One of Largest Owners.

Millions of dollars—a veritable "lead bonanza"—have accrued to numerous St. Louisans as a result of recent rises in the market value of stock in the St. Joseph Lead Co., the largest lead producer in the world.

Of the $15,504,130 capital stock more than one-fourth is held in and around St. Louis. The stock, with a par value of $10, yesterday sold at $43.50, or more than four times its first value. Recently it sold at $46, as against a low point of $17 in 1921 and $22.75 in 1924.

One of the largest shareholders in St. Louis—if not the largest—is F. M. Desloge, capitalist, who is credited with having more than 20,000 shares, worth at current quotations in excess of $1,300,000. Large holdings also are credited to the estates of several St. Louisans who got in on the "ground floor" years ago.

Prosperity Throughout State.

The unprecedented prosperity in metals has brought riches throughout Missouri, a leading source of metallic wealth. Lead, zinc and copper prices have soared. At Flat River, Herculaneum, Bonne Terre, Joplin and other production centers prosperity is evident, due to a steadily increasing demand and high prices for these products.

The St. Joseph company, incorporated in 1854, holds more than 40,000 acres of land in the Southern Missouri lead belt. In 1923 it purchased for a considerable sum approximately 10,000,000 pounds, ore reserves, surface land and mining plant of the Federal and Co. It controls, through stock holdings, the Mississippi River and Bonne Terre Railway, the Bonne Terre Farming and Cattle Co. and the Doe Run Lead Co. ore production in recent years has increased steadily, ranging from 2,133,327 tons in 1920 to 2,717,447 in 1923.

Officials of the company are at St. Louis and New York. St. Louisans on the board of directors are F. M. Desloge, D. K. Catlin, Max Kotany and M. F. Watts.

History of Firm Romantic.

The "Flat River country" has had a romantic history. It was famous 75 years ago, became moribund after the Civil War, became famous again 40 years ago, and now is more famous, and more prosperous than ever.

A Frenchman named La Grave had been the forerunner of the St. Joseph company. He had been working the disseminated ore a time when the Bonne Terre settlement consisted of two houses. After getting out the lead-carrying "roasted" ore in a wood shed until it became brittle. Then he broke the rock from the galena in an old-fashioned grinding apparatus, with hoppers like a coffee mill, and operated by mule power. Smelting process also was crude, but effective.

News of La Grave's "lead bonanza" reached New York, as well as St. Louis, and the St. Joseph Lead Co. was formed to buy his property. His original investment of $100,000 netted him $80,000.

Holders of Stock Here.

The St. Louis Union Trust Co. is listed as a holder, as trustee of various estates of approximately 10,000 shares of the St. Joseph company. Other large stockholders in St. Louis, and their reported holdings are:

George L. Allen estate, 28,000 shares.
George H. Baker estate, 20,000.
Estate of Dr. F. Von L. Brown, 13,000 shares.
Estate of Daniel Catlin, 9000 shares.
Mrs. Zoe D. Cobb, about 3000 shares.
Estate of Jules Desloge, 5500 shares.
Dr. George S. Drake, 3000 shares.
Mrs. Eugenia Howard Edmunds, 2000 shares.
Estate of Louis Fusz, 20,000 shares.
Joseph H. Givens, 2000 shares.
Hart and Semple estates, 5000 shares.

PLUMBER REMOVES PIPES, BUT FAILS TO FIND $2500 IN GEMS

A plumber and his helper put in a busy day at the Washington Hotel yesterday. Drain pipes from a seventh-floor suite to the sewer were taken out and put back again in a fruitless search for three diamond rings valued at $2525.

Mrs. Morris Loewenstein, a guest, was cleaning the rings—two solitaires worth $1500 and $175, respectively, and a ring set with 27 stones worth $2000—during the morning, when her telephone rang. She laid the rings above the washstand but when she returned they were gone. The plumbing was removed on a chance they would be found, but without success.

BABY GIRL IS BITTEN BY RAT AS SHE SLEEPS IN CRIB

Child Injured About Face and Hand—Plastic Surgery Used to Prevent Disfigurement.

Louise Meadows, 2-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Meadows, 1526 Kansas avenue, East St. Louis, is in Deaneches Hospital recovering from injuries suffered Friday night when her face and nose were bitten by a rat as she slept in a crib in her parents' bedroom.

The parents heard no outcry and did not know of the child's condition until the next morning. Besides an area about the size of a half dollar on her nose and left cheek, there were numerous marks of the rodent's teeth on her forehead and left hand.

According to Drs. W. J. Crotty and O. M. Waters, who performed a plastic operation, the wounds are healing and are likely to leave but small traces. It was one of the first instances on record of plastic surgery being attempted upon so young a patient.

U. S. WARSHIPS ORDERED TO FACE SHANGHAI GUNS

They Are to Escort Vessels From Harbor Despite Danger From Wang's Forces.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—American war vessels in Shanghai waters have been ordered to escort American and British merchant ships which desire to leave Shanghai at night, even in the face of guns of the Woosung fort, commanded by Gen. Wang.

Among other ships, the American naval craft are guarding the steamship Beigenland, which has 400 American tourists aboard.

Gen. Wang has advised Rear Admiral McVay, commanding the American Yangtze patrol force, that the Woosung fort will not fire on foreign vessels entering or departing from Shanghai during daylight. Admiral McVay replied that his Government desires Shanghai kept open to commercial ships and that he will furnish convoys at any hour.

AUTO USED IN COLLINSVILLE MAIL HOLDUP BELIEVED FOUND

Abandoned Buick Containing Empty Mail Pouches Stood on Street in East St. Louis.

A Buick touring car, supposed to have been the one used by the robbers who held up James Mathies, a mail messenger at Collinsville, Ill., of a pouch containing $15,000, yesterday, was found by Detective Joseph G. Schuler of East St. Louis on an East St. Louis street this morning.

Schuler, who is a special Deputy Sheriff and private detective, found the car parked on a street on his way home last night. Seeing it still there this morning, he examined it and found two empty mail pouches in it. He placed it in a garage and notified the postoffice inspectors.

The car bore license No. 72-729. It was stolen from the Ford automobile of Oscar Voelker, 423 North Twenty-sixth street, recently.

The Home-Owning Tradition

The tradition of independence is characteristically American. It is that of home ownership.

There are many reasons why this tradition is growing, but chief among them is that owning one's home brings happiness and security.

Get into line with this growing movement.

WITNESSES AT HERRIN INQUEST ASSURED SAFETY

Foreman of Coroner's Jury Asserts Protection Will Be Afforded if Such Course Is Necessary.

It is expected that the witnesses at the HERRIN inquest, which will be held at the Washington Hotel in St. Louis, will be afforded the same protection as was given to the witnesses at the coroner's inquest at HERRIN, Mo., last week.

FIRST TESTIMONY BY ANTI-KLAN SIDE

Friend of Thomas, However, Changes Details of His Story—Police Feared to Go to Scene of Attack.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

HERRIN, Ill., Jan. 28.—The first testimony from the anti-Klan side in the HERRIN inquest, which is being held at the Washington Hotel in St. Louis, was given this afternoon by Elias Green, friend of Thomas, who changed details of his story.

Green, who was a witness at the HERRIN inquest, testified that he was with Thomas and two of Young's followers in the HERRIN Hotel, when the shooting broke out. He testified that he saw Thomas being shot and that he saw Young being shot.

DOG TEAMS RUSHING TO NOME WITH ANTITOXIN

Epidemic Has Closed Schools and Sleds Must Travel 400 Miles to Reach City.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Jan. 28.—Moving on a 400-mile snow-covered path, the fastest dog teams in this district are on the road to Nome. They are carrying antitoxin to fight the epidemic of diphtheria raging at Nome. The teams carried 300,000 units of antitoxin to be used in fighting the epidemic.

When the serum reaches Nome, it will be transferred to a team of dogs owned by William Shannon, who expects to make the first trip to Nome. The teams will follow the Tanana River to the Yukon River, thence to Nulato, 100 miles east of Norton Sound, cut across Norton Bay and overland to Nome.

MAN LEAVES "KIDS" AT SHOW AND GETS LOST

He Admits Taking Drinks After Seeking in Vain for a Job.

Eddie Ivy got lost yesterday. A concrete-worker out of work, he went downtown with several things to do. First he took his two children, Elois 7, and Margie, 3, to a hair bobber's and then he left them in a picture show while he went to seek a job. Down on Second street he found a saloon where he had whiskey and home-brew. He took a couple of drinks and lost his wits.

At 5 p. m., when the official reading was 19 above, a policeman met Elois and Margie in front of the Gem Theater at 16 South Sixth street. They were crying and were very cold. They were looking for papa who had got lost, they said.

Father Calls at Station.

At police headquarters, beside a sizzling radiator, Elois explained. They lived at 3749 South Grand boulevard. Mama was in the hospital with typhoid fever. Papa was Eddie Ivy, a concrete worker, and he had left them at the Gem and didn't return.

Two hours later Ivy showed up at headquarters. A sergeant saw the point of his incoherent explanation and hustled him to city hospital. Today he is sober and sorry.

AUTO INJURY SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Victim Suffering From Appendicitis When Injured.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The fact that Marvin Gomez of Indiana Harbor was struck and seriously injured by an automobile at Gary probably saved his life, doctors said yesterday. They explained that when Gomez was operated on he was found to be suffering from acute appendicitis and said he would probably have died in a few hours if he had not received surgical attention. The accident broke the sac, which would have burst shortly of its own accord, surgeons said.

"Galligan Promised to Come."

"Then I went to the home of my father, the Chief of Police. Lisenby went with me. I called up Sheriff Galligan at Marion, and told him there had been a shooting. He said he would come over, but he didn't. I started to go back to the scene, but decided it would be no use. My sister, who had come over from her house, had told us how the mob was acting. Lisenby stayed at my father's house all night."

Walker was asked why he did not deputize men to help him. He said that he did try to deputize some men, but that they said they were unarmed and could not help him. "The armed ones belonged to the mob," he said, "and it was no use deputizing the mob to disperse itself."

Walker and his father are for—

Gloria Swanson Weds A French Marquis, With A Real, Genuine Title

Third Marriage of Film Star Takes Place in City Hall of Paris Suburb—To Return to U. S. Soon.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—Gloria Swanson, film actress, was married at noon today to Marquis Henri de la Falaise de la Courdrey. The ceremony was performed at the city hall in Passy, a suburb of Paris.

The Marquess, as she now will be titled, will not retire from film work, it was said.

Baron d'Aiguy was the witness for the Marquis. The witness for Miss Swanson was the first secretary of the American Embassy, Hallet Johnson.

Miss Swanson wore a beige gray tailored suit and a simple hat.

Following the ceremony, the bride party drove to the Hotel Plaza Athenee. There an elaborate luncheon was served. At this hotel the honeymoon will be passed.

"I expect to remain in France until I complete my work in film," said the bride.

"Then we will depart for America. If our plans are not changed, we will cross Feb. 11."

"I am going to remain in the films, at least for the present. I am not fully decided what I shall do in the future."

The Marquis is the son of the first Olympic world champion fencer. He is a nephew of the French Ambassador to Switzerland, James Hennessy, the brandy king. The Marquis is reputed to be one of the best swordsmen in France.

The marriage of Miss Swanson and the Marquis was the culmination of a rapid romance. It was a case of love at first sight, they friends said. They were introduced only a short time ago by Forrest Halsey, New York short story and scenario writer.

It was only yesterday that the Marquis and Miss Swanson decided to be married. They immediately obtained dispensation from

GLORIA SWANSON.

The Paris Municipal Council to avoid the usual legal delays.

Third Matrimonial Venture for the Film Star

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Gloria Swanson is one of the world's most prominent as well as the world's highest paid film stars.

This is the third marriage of Miss Swanson. Her first husband was Wallace Beery himself a motion picture player. Her second husband was Herbert Sorin, of New York. By the second marriage she had a daughter, now living with Miss Swanson's mother, in Hollywood.

Miss Swanson went abroad several months ago to make a motion picture. She was to have returned to the United States shortly to take the leading role in another film play.

Miss Swanson began her screen career in comedy roles at one of the Los Angeles studios.

POKER PLAYERS AT THE WASHINGTON HOTEL ROBBED

Three of a Kind—Automatics—Cause Eight in Game to Toss Up Their Hands at 3 A. M. Sunday.

BUT, GOOD LOSERS. THEY "SAY NOTHING"

About $900 on Table and Some $2100 in Gold and Platinum Taken by Uninvited Guests.

Whatever else may be said about the men who foregathered Saturday night at the Washington Hotel, Kingshighway and Washington boulevards, you have to hand it to them: in poker parlance, they are good losers. Even when they lose their winnings they are that way. Eight of them, winners and losers, lost about $3000 at 3 o'clock last Sunday morning. Are they complaining about it? Not at all. They haven't even bothered to tell the police.

The men who meet Saturday nights at the Washington to spend the night matching skill and luck are tired business men, men of light and leading and impeccable solvency along Lindell boulevard and from the subdivisions. The men to whom they lost Sunday morning were obscure persons, of no social standing, who were not properly introduced and did not, leave their cards, but poker players are nothing if not democratic. It's the best hand that counts in poker, nothing else. The three who dropped into the game Sunday morning held automatics. You can't beat hands like that. The elite laid down their cards and bowed to the newcomers and said, "Gentlemen, you win."

The coterie assemblies Wednesday nights, as well as Saturday nights, but Thursday, with its duties and cares, follows Wednesday night, so it is Saturday night that the attendance is best and the stakes the highest.

Last Saturday night there were eight on hand. At 2 a. m. they had thrown off the fatigue of the week and were going strong, with about $900 on the table. There was a tap at the door. Probably a bellman, bringing something or other. The door was unobtrusively opened. Entered then three men who had not been invited. They had not even been announced. But, as said above, it is what you hold that counts in a poker game, and each of them held an automatic.

"Hands up, gents," said one, showing his careless and quaint speech that he was out of his element. But look what he held.

"Up went the hands, some pretty good poker hands among them, but the intruders scarcely glanced at the cards. They had come for the money. They lined the players against the wall and swept the stakes from the table and then one of them deftly removed the players' hands. So he repeated the same operation, after which the three backed out of the room and were on their way.

"Girl Losers 'Say Nothing.'"

The players took stock and found that they were out about $2100 worth of gold and platinum, besides the stakes. They consulted together and decided that nothing was to be gained by telling the police. They were good losers. If they did say it themselves. So they would just take their losses and call it a night and go on home.

It got out somehow. Maybe one of the robbers told it as a joke. The police heard about it and detectives were sent out. They made polite inquiries and found their way to suite 806, occupied by a man and his wife. The man said his name was John W. Taylor. Yes, there was a social game Saturday night, and along toward next morning one of the gentlemen went out to get some lunch.

When a tap came at the door Taylor naturally supposed it was the friend returning with the lunch. So he opened the door. And there stood the three men with their automatics held so that he could see everything that they had. They came in and collected on the strength of their three of a kind.

As for the names of the gentlemen in the game, he could not think of divulging those. Not, at least, unless they gave permission. For they were his guests, you see, and certain amenities are due guests under such circumstances. Besides, it was just a social game. A few friends, you know, who desired a little diversion. And good losers all.

Good losers are never without hope. They may get it back at the next session.

WHEAT SELLING ABOVE $2.00 FOR MAY DELIVERY

Delivery for Spring Reaches Peak for First Time in Eight Years.

Wheat for May delivery sold above the $2 basis on the Merchants' Exchange today, for the first time in nearly eight years, or since May, 1917, when it touched $3.38, just before trading was suspended at the request of the Government, as a war measure. Cash wheat sold at $2.15 yesterday.

Excluding the World War period it is necessary to go back to April, 1877, or 48 years ago, to find wheat-bringing more than $2 a bushel on the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange.

Wheat prices have been steadily rising lately, under the influence of foreign demand for American grain for immediate delivery.

Reports in the trade that European countries that are usually exporters of wheat were buying wheat in other countries because of shortages of crop have had bullish influences on prices. Liverpool, Buenos Aires and Winnipeg, the leading outside markets, have had sharp advances in prices.

There has been heavy speculative trading in wheat on the Chicago market.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—May wheat went above the $2 mark shortly after the opening of the Board of Trade session here. General buying by commission houses took place after the opening, and absorbed immense profit-taking sales which quickly sent initial values upward.

With the exception of 1916-17 the price attained during the early dealings today was the highest since 1868, when wheat for immediate delivery sold at $2.20 in November.

Wheat for May delivery touched $2.05 1/2, a new high record price, just before the closing gong sounded. At the finish the market showed a net advance over yesterday's finish of 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 c. The May delivery leading the March with a net advance of 5 1/2 to 5 c. Final figures for May were $2.04 1/2 to $2.05.

POST CARD 9 YEARS REACHING HERE FROM EAST CARONDELET

Mailed in November, 1915, It Was Stamped Jan. 26 on Mail Car Running From Jackson, Miss.

One day in November, 1915, Ray Taylor, then a dealer in the Post-Dispatch at East Carondelet, Ill., which is in St. Clair County, across the river from Carondelet, filled out and mailed a post card addressed to this newspaper, increasing the number of Sunday papers he was receiving.

Yesterday the Post-Dispatch received the card, which was faded and badly soiled. The day of the month it was dated was obliterated. The postmark on the face, stamped on a mail car running between Jackson, Miss., and St. Louis, bore the date of Jan. 26, 1925.

Where had the card been since 1915?

NUN IS KILLED BY MIXING MACHINE

Sister Maura became entangled in device in bakery at St. Elizabeth's Academy.

Sister Maura was killed at 9 a. m. today when her body became entangled in a dough-mixing machine in the bakery at St. Elizabeth's Academy, 3401 Arsenal street.

The nun's family name was Gieske and her former home was in Pierce City, Mo. She was 30 years old. The academy is a Catholic day and boarding school for girls, conducted by the Sisters of the Precious Blood, of which Sister Maura was a member for about four years.

The sister's duties were in the bakery in the basement. She was there alone this morning. What happened to her is the subject of the physician who pronounced her dead after another nun found her body in the mixer at 9:30 a. m. Apparently she was cleaning the machine, used for mixing bread dough, and pushed the lever which started it in motion while leaning inside of it.

A revolving apparatus inside was actuated by the lever. The machine is similar to a large-sized ice cream freezer. Sister Maura suffered fractures of the skull and one arm and her body was mangled. No sound was heard when the accident occurred.

Those in charge of the academy said they did not know what relatives survive Sister Maura, but thought there were some in St. Louis.

FIGHTING PREACHER OF EAST ST. LOUIS

REV. O. PIERRE BELLANGER.

WARRANT IN $38,000 U. R. HOLDUP ISSUED

Fred Burke, Egan Gangster, to Be Tried for Daring Daylight Robbery in 1923.

A warrant charging first-degree robbery was issued by the Circuit Attorney's office today against Fred Burke, ex-convict and Egan gangster, whose rogues' gallery picture was identified almost a year ago as one of the robbers who got away with $38,000 in a daring daylight holdup of the United Railways Co. office, July 2, 1923.

Burke is in jail at Detroit where he was arrested last March with leaden Londe, another Egan man, in a jewelry store holdup. At that time, Detroit authorities refused to surrender Burke to the St. Louis police, but today a brief telegram stated the St. Louis police could have him if they would send after him.

A detective will go to Detroit tonight. Londe is serving a 15-year term in Michigan prison and it is thought that Burke must have won a not guilty verdict.

Burke's photograph was identified by witnesses to the United Railways robbery as the only unmasked member of the Egan band. No other identifications have been made, but detectives say they have information to the effect that Egan gangsters now in Leavenworth prison with William P. Colbeck, leader of the gang, participated in the robbery.

When Burke left St. Louis he jumped a $5000 bond while awaiting trial on a burglary charge. He has served two prison terms.

BENEFIT SHOW FOR PARENTS OF MAN WHO KILLED ROBBER

Special Midnight Performance Will Be Family of Garrick Theater - for Family of Garrick Theater -
A special benefit performance at the Garrick Theater, the entire proceeds of which will be turned over to the parents of Frank Wilmes Jr., who was fatally wounded in a revolver duel with a robber last Thursday night, has been announced for tomorrow night at 10 o'clock.

The performance, which will be given by the "Speedy Steppers" company, playing at the Garrick have week, will begin at 11:45 o'clock, following the regular evening show. Actors, stagehands, musicians and all other attaches of the house will donate their services free so that every dollar taken in at the box office can be devoted to relief of the family of a man who lost his life in fighting St. Louis of two other men. As is known, Wilmes Jr. was killed after he had himself been shot through the abdomen and both legs.

Wilmes' death, which occurred Saturday, left his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilmes, both of whom are past 60, virtually without support. They reside at 1410A Gratton street.

THE PASTOR, AND "THE FLOCK NOT WORTH SAVING"

Rev. O. P. Bellanger of Lansdowne Church, East
St. Louis, Threatens to Put Board Out of Office.

Lansdowne Church of Christ, at Twenty-fifth and Lincoln streets, East St. Louis, will hold its regular monthly board meeting Monday night. And those of the Lansdowne congregation who smarted under the sting of the pastor's oratory Sunday, when the Rev. O. Pierre Bellanger told some of them "their hides weren't worth saving and their bones, if used for fertilizer, wouldn't be worth enough to pay their debts," are wondering what the board is going to do about the "fighting parson" of East St. Louis' "fighting parson" has his dander up. He knows that the maxim of great fighters is to strike the enemy first.

"Monday night," he mused. "Well, if I'm here Sunday I'll just see that church board out of office."

And A. G. Pipit, whom the Rev. Mr. Bellanger charges with leading the opposition, and who told the Post-Dispatch he believed he was target for the preacher's oratorical artillery in the Sunday morning sermon, says for him the matter ended when he went up to the pulpit at that Sabbath service and apologized. Pipit is a teacher in Jefferson School, just across from the church.

"Suppose the pastor's friends ask for a pay increase Monday?" he was asked.

"It will be voted on," he said. "Suppose his enemies demand his resignation?"

"We mustn't suppose too much. So far as I know there is nothing against the minister," he told the Post-Dispatch, "so to church."

"A Powerful Preacher."

The Rev. Mr. Bellanger had things to say Sunday when he faced a congregation in which he saw many church enemies. "If you want to find the devil," he told the "Post-Dispatch," "go to church." So he unlimbered his guns. As Mr. Pipit says, "the minister is a powerful preacher." Word had gone out that "something was being done" at that service. At its close Mr. Pipit apologized.

The pastor's talk was about church finance. "Render, therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's," he quoted. Pipit, who had opposed an advance in the pastor's salary, thought that was the nub of the minister's complaint. The Rev. Mr. Bellanger it wasn't. "I'm not a collector," he says. "But an independent. I think they pay ministers such low salaries to keep them humble." The Rev. Mr. Bellanger receives $55 a week. He wants $80.

He's a fighter. Once he was a great advocate of the Ku Klux Klan. He resigned because he didn't approve some of its activities. Someone threatened to "kill" him about Bellanger. "The fighting parson struck first," he told his congregation he was an ex-convict and had served two years and eight months in the Minnesota penitentiary, unjustly convicted of arson.

That was last June. Pastor Bellanger had been with his flock six months of a three-year call. He was building a $40,000 church. The Post-Dispatch— he told the congregation—extended his call two years.

BILLS OFFERED TO CURB AMBULANCE CHASING LAWYERS

Bar Association Measures
Also Seek to Prevent Fraud by Designing
Claim Agents.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 28.—Five bills of the St. Louis Bar Association, to curb the "ambulance-chasing" lawyer, to frustrate the designing claim agent of the railroads and the public utilities, and to do away with at least some of the unnecessary delays in litigation, were introduced in the House today by Representative Davis of Kansas City, chairman of the Committee on Judiciary.

The bills were brought to Jefferson City yesterday by Dwight D. Currie, president of the St. Louis Bar Association, and John M. Atkinson, chairman of one of the committees of the association. They had conferences with members of the Judiciary Committee, at which details of the measures were discussed, and Davis offered to introduce them. In seeking to meet the evil of the "ambulance-chasing" lawyer, who obtains employment in personal damage cases on an unscrupulous contingency fee basis by solicitation in unprofessional ways, and also to guard the injured from the scheming claim agent, who in some instances, traps injured persons into signing releases for nominal damages, the association has two bills.

Provides Jail Sentence.

One provides for the assessment of a fine of not to exceed $500, or a sentence of imprisonment for not to exceed six months in jail for any attorney who solicits employment or employs a "runner" to solicit business, or who promises to pay any person a commission for business, or who shall loan or promise to loan any money on any money in consideration of employment to prosecute or defend any legal action.

It is expected this would reach the lawyer who takes damage suits on a contingency basis, virtually the litigation until the judgment is collected. There have been cases in which attorneys have followed this practice and through fees, costs and advances of various kinds have exhausted the pockets of the injured party.

To Strengthen Disbarment Act.

Another of the bills seeks to strengthen the law under which attorneys guilty of dishonest or unprofessional practices may be disbarred. It has been found that the greatest increase in its popular vote in the last election over the preceding one, will be given to St. Louis County Feb. 21. St. Louis County won the cup by showing a vote increase of 24 per cent. The trophy is to be received by the County Court and Chancellor Hadley of Washington University has been requested to accept the cup on behalf of St. Louis County.

To answer summons. Under the present law a writ of habeas corpus within 20 days of the opening of fixed terms of the court goes over until the next term. This bill is drawn on the theory that any defendant can answer within 20 days of the service of the petition, and that the delays, which frequently amount to four or five months at the beginning of litigation, can be avoided. While neither of the bills actually does away with the fixed terms of court, the terms, in so far as they affect the progress of litigation, are made ineffective.

LICENSE NUMBER ON AUTO LEADS POLICE NOWHERE

Hunt for Driver Who Beat Truck
Chauffeur Brings Only Information That Man Has Moved.

Another instance of tracing an automobile license, only to find themselves at the end of a blind alley, was encountered by the police yesterday when they sought the driver of a Ford sedan who, with three other men, kicked and pummeled the driver of a truck, inflicting serious injuries, after a traffic mixup at Theresa avenue and Washington boulevard.

The injured man, Charles L. Beuer, 22, a grocer of 2840 Burd avenue, reported he was driving his Ford truck south in Theresa at 3:55 p. m. and had just stopped for the truck into a machine behind a Ford sedan carrying four men narrowly missed collision with a larger car at the intersection. In an effort to get out of the way of both cars, Beuer said, he backed his truck into a machine behind him and got out explaining that "the man in the Ford sedan is responsible for this."

The occupants of the Ford overheard the remark, got out and set upon Beuer, knocking him down and kicking him. He took the sedan's license number, but when the sedan traced it they found it had been issued to a man on Belegade avenue who had moved four months ago without leaving record of his new address.

DRIVER OF TAXICAB THAT KILLED NEGRO IS INDICTED

Richard Wainwright Charged With
Manslaughter in Connection
With Death of Sam White.

Richard Wainwright, 28, a chauffeur for the Yellow Taxicab Co., was indicted by the grand jury yesterday on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Sam White, a negro, who was struck by Wainwright's car and killed.

The fatality occurred on Pine street near Carondeau avenue, Jan. 17. White, who was 35 years old and who had no known place of abode, was crossing the street when hit by the cab. He was carried several feet on the tender, before he fell off, and the cab passed over him. Wainwright lives at the Stratford Hotel, Eighth and Pine streets.

BRIDE GETS 5 YEARS FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Mrs. Hazel Sandel, 22, Sentenced for Crimes About Which She Laughed.

Realization of the wages of crime came to Mrs. Hazel Tinkler Sandel, 22-year-old confessed highway robber, in Circuit Court at Clayton yesterday, when Judge Wurdeman formally pronounced sentence of five years in the penitentiary on her.

On Nov. 4, the morning after she was arrested with her husband of three weeks, and her brother, she had recited gaily details of six robberies which she said she and the men had committed in five nights. She laughed then as she recalled the behavior of their victims.

But yesterday it was different. She was led into court after an experience of 12 weeks in jail. Alone she stood before the high bench. The Judge peered down and said: "You are sentenced to serve five years in the State penitentiary or until such time as you are released by due process of law."

"Five Years!"

The young woman quailed. Her knees seemed to collapse. She staggered to a chair in front of the bench and broke into sobbing tears.

"Five years!" she cried. "Five years!" and she wept.

Though the courtroom was full of men and women there for other cases, none was moved visibly to sympathy. Mrs. Sandel was led away. She will be taken to the Jefferson City prison as soon as the Sheriff can arrange it.

Neither husband nor brother was there to comfort the youthful criminal. Because she had talked about her exploits and implicated them, they deserted her. They left jail when they obtained $5000 bonds on Dec. 22, but they arranged no bond for her. Since they pleaded not guilty and obtained a change of venue, their case will come up later before Judge McElhinney. The husband is Edward Sandel and the brother is James Lambert.

Mrs. Sandel had pleaded guilty on Nov. 15 and her punishment was fixed then, but sentence was not pronounced. She was taken back to Clayton jail and full realization of the future did not seem to be before her then. Sentence was deferred in order to give the Prosecuting Attorney opportunity to get information from her about other holdups.

Directed Holdup in County.

The case in which Mrs. Sandel was sentenced concerned the robbery of Albert Vance of 3411 Lucas avenue the night of Nov. 1, on North and South road, near Clayton. Sitting in a dilapidated machine, Mrs. Sandel directed that holdup, and Vance said, suggested to the men with her that they trade cars with Vance. He lost $4, and his machine.

Mrs. Sandel and the men were arrested in Brentwood the night of Nov. 3, after Grant Moore, a negro, had been held up in Kirkwood. Brentwood officers watched for the car he described and arrested the trio. It was thought at first that Mrs. Sandel might be used as a witness in that case, but she could not testify against her husband, and hence against her brother, as long as the men stood trial together. The three were charged with attempted robbery in this case, but this charge against Mrs. Sandel was dismissed yesterday.

The Sandels and Lambert had resided in a rooming house at 1294 Montgomery street, and the woman said, started robbing because they were "up against it."

KIRKWOOD'S EXTENSION PLAN IS LIKELY TO BE OPPOSED

Kirkwood's proposal to annex territory surrounding it, increasing its area from three to 14 square miles, is likely to be repealed by the suburb's Board of Aldermen at a special session tonight, because of the opposition of residents of the territory affected, who would have no vote in the matter, but could go to court afterwards.

One settlement in the district, Des Peres, has filed an appeal for incorporation and Meramec Highlands and Meacham Park, the latter a negro district, were considering similar action. Mayor Beecher of Kirkwood said today he would recommend repeal of the proposal, which the town was to have voted on Feb. 14. "If those people don't want to come in we don't want to force them," he said. "We were of the opinion they would benefit from it."

The Kirkwood Business Men's Credit Association, which had backed the movement, last night recommended the repeal. There appears to have been some misapprehension as to the effect of annexation on tax rates. Kirkwood will vote on two bond issues Feb. 14.

Bank Robbers Get $5500.

By the Associated Press.
WACO, Tex., Jan. 28.—Burning their way into the vault with acetylene torches, robbers some time last night entered the First State Bank of Riesel, near here, and escaped with about $5500 in currency, all the cash in the bank.

NINE HELD FOR THEFT OF RADIO SUPPLIES

Part of $5000 Loot, Systematically Taken in Two Years Recovered.

Systematic theft over a period of two years of radio supplies valued at approximately $5000 from the Colin B. Kennedy Radio Corporation, was revealed yesterday with the arrest of nine employees and former employees of the firm. Five others are being questioned and police said today several more arrests are expected at an early date.

The Kennedy corporation, which manufactures and distributes radio goods, is a subsidiary of the Wagner Electric Co., and maintains a downtown sales office at 2017 Locust street.

Four of the persons arrested, according to the police, have admitted taking radio parts from the store and later assembling them for sale. Ten complete sets, besides numerous parts, have been recovered and a squad of four detectives under Detective Sergeant Collier is investigating clues which are expected to lead to further recoveries today.

For a long time, according to Colin B. Kennedy, president of the concern, parts of sets had been disappearing mysteriously from the store, but no direct evidence of looting by employees of the place came to light until yesterday, when a dissatisfied customer called at the store to complain about the imperfections of a set he had purchased. He had bought the apparatus piecemeal from one of the clerks and thought he was buying it from the firm. When he went back to the place to complain, however, he got the wrong employee.

An official looking up records of the sale found that no such sale had been made, although the parts were recognized as Kennedy products. Employees were called into a conference and an investigation begun. Before it had proceeded far the five detectives were on the job, and six employees had been arrested, four admitting, according to the officers, that they had taken the parts "because everybody else was doing it." Later in the day three other former employees were taken into custody at their homes.

R. King Kauffman Elected.

R. King Kauffman, vice president of the Mercantile Trust Co., has been elected vice president of the J. R. Thompson Restaurant Co., according to a dispatch from Chicago. The company, which has its offices in Chicago, owns 111 restaurants in Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. Kauffman was formerly a member of the company's board of directors.

Relief

For pain—quick

The worst pains people suffer can be relieved at once. Rheumatic pain, soreness, backache, cold in chest, etc.

Put the sore spot with red pepper. Nothing else supplies such concentrated, such penetrating heat. And heat that doesn't hurt.

You feel it instantly. In three minutes that heat penetrates to the depths. Circulation starts, congestion is relieved. The pain and the soreness depart.

People used to use plasters, mustard and liniments. But modern science has found a better way, a quicker, more efficient way, a way without objections.

Don't suffer pains which Red Pepper Rub relieves almost at once. Don't let cold in the chest go neglected. Have this rub at hand—get it now. The time will come when the quick relief will mean much to someone in your home.

Red Pepper is safe, millions of painful hours. Let it save them for you and yours.

DAUGHERTY DENIES BRIBE WAS OFFERED HIM BY MEANS

Former Attorney-General on Stand
Asks Court's Permission to Tell
More, but Is Denied.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Harry M. Daugherty, former United States Attorney-General, testifying at the trial of Gaston B. Means and Thomas E. Felder, charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice, indignantly denied yesterday he had ever been "approached by either of the defendants with bribe money."

He also denied any knowledge of an alleged attempt to "fix" certain Federal officials of whom he himself was supposed to have been one, for the purposes of having indictments against officials of the Cruger company on charges of using the mails to defraud quashed. The former Cabinet member twice asked the Court's permission to answer questions that had been ruled out, saying once that "during this period of upheaval, when some people are hell-bound and some are spell-bound, the public should have the truth." However, in neither case was he permitted to answer the questions.

GIVEN TWO YEARS FOR FORGERY

By the Associated Press.
POPULAR ELLIFF, Mo., Jan. 23.—J. W. Davis, traveling salesman for the Delhi Battery Co. of St. Louis, who recently was arrested there charged with forgery, was found guilty here yesterday and sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary. He was alleged to have forged checks totaling $500, signing the name of William Campbell, president of the company for which he worked. He said that he forged the checks to get money to buy a $75 automobile for his son.

Cahokia is Only Half Completed

Already, it has proved itself a leader among the big power plants of America.

Completed, it will be the largest power plant between the Mississippi and the Pacific.

Three times the year-round power of Muscle Shoals.

Designed to keep average electric rates in St. Louis the lowest among the 15 large cities of the United States.

As Cahokia Grows

LAST February, this company offered its customers opportunity to buy Preferred Stock in Cahokia, the new superpower plant being built to meet the fast-growing demand of this district for electricity.

By October—or in eight months—customers had bought $4,000,000 of the stock, exhausting the issue. Few, if any, other public utilities in the country have had customers declare confidence in them by buying so large an amount of their securities in so short a time.

The $4,000,000 sold was part of the money spent in construction of the first two sections of Cahokia. Those sections now are finished and work has been begun on the third section, upon which further large sums already have been spent.

Therefore, by authority of the Illinois Commerce Commission, we announce issuance at this time of $1,500,000 of the Cumulative Preferred Stock of Union Electric Light and Power Co. of Illinois (Cahokia 6%). The stock is supported dollar for dollar by money already invested in income-producing property at Cahokia.

We immediately will fill orders we have been holding because we previously have been unable to fill them and again invite our customers to become our partners in this safe, superpower enterprise.

The officers of this company believe that, safety of principal and dividend considered, there is no better investment open to St. Louisans today than Cahokia 6%.

ADVERTISING ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with excellent results.

KILLS SELF AS WIFE LISTENS ON PHONE

Former Head of Construction Company Was Despondent Over Failure to Get Work.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Baffled in efforts to recoup his fortunes, Frederick A. Siebold Jr., one-time head of construction companies here and in Miami, Fla., last night killed himself with a shotgun in a downtown hotel while his wife listened on the telephone.

Despondency over failure to obtain employment here and in New York probably deranged him, his wife said. In a letter to her, found in the room, he asked that his body be cremated and the ashes scattered over a lake and in a woods in Minnesota where he had hunted. Siebold had risen to sudden wealth in the operation of construction companies which undertook erection of hotels, theaters and large buildings. He disappeared in 1923, after giving worthless checks amounting to nearly $50,000 in connection with a hotel project, but later paid off his obligations.

He registered at the hotel yesterday as from Miami, Fla. He called his wife on the telephone and shot himself after telling her to listen.

GERMANS' AGREEMENT HITS FRENCH PRODUCERS OF STEEL

Berlin Interprets Pact as Complete Victory for Ruhr Industrialists.
Copyright, 1923, by the Free and Politzer Publishing Co., the New York World.
BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The agreement between the German producers of raw iron and steel and the German manufacturers of iron products, published in Paris, is interpreted here as proof of a complete victory for the small, but all-powerful, clique of Ruhr industrialists.
The wealthy coal and iron barons. It is generally believed in financial circles, can force their own terms on the French proprietors of the Lorraine iron fields.
Since Jan. 1 they have imported a sufficient supply of iron from England, Sweden and Spain to provide the South German manufacturers with iron and steel ingots at a price lower than the French can do. Thus they have left French producers with stocks on their hands.
The agreement, disclosed by the Paris newspaper Le Temps, shows

German manufacturers are ready to accept a protective tariff on imported iron ore, which leaves the big coal, iron and steel interests of the Ruhr in complete control over their supplies of raw materials.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.
All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it. Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night.

SHIFT REPORTED IN BAKER'S POLICE BOARD SLATE

Governor Said to Desire to Substitute Julian Gibson
for Martin Scherer Jr. in His Tentative List.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 28.—Even after another visit of the four Republican Senators from St. Louis to Gov. Baker, no agreement is in sight on the personnel of the St. Louis Board of Police Commissioners. The Governor cannot seem to suggest names which meet the approval of the St. Louis Senators, who will have a considerable voice in saying whether the Governor's selections will or will not be confirmed by the Senate.

Although none of the four Senators would discuss in detail a call they made on the Governor late yesterday afternoon, there was an apparently authentic report at the Capitol that the Governor had made another shift of at least one of the men it seemed reasonably certain a few days ago was to be named.

The slate which had come to be generally accepted as the one most liable to be sent to the Senate included Allen C. Orrick of the law firm of Nagel & Kirby, for the presidency of the Police Board, and Martin Scherer Jr., Secretary of the Republican City Committee as a member. There has been some talk that Arthur J. Freund, attorney, might be shifted to the presidency.

Switch by Governor Rumored.
Now the story is that the Governor wishes to substitute Julian Gibson, a furniture dealer, and an active Progressive in the days of 1912, for Scherer. Scherer was not looked upon with friendly eyes by the St. Louis Senators, but it is said that Gibson is even more objectionable to them. He was one of the men former Gov. Hyde insisted for days in 1920 should be placed on the board. The St. Louis Senators took a determined stand against him then and forced Hyde to abandon the idea of appointing him. It is said they are as firmly determined to prevent his nomination by Gov. Baker, or at least to prevent his confirmation.

There is a disposition among Republicans informed in St. Louis political affairs to attribute Gibson's reappearance to the influence of Nat Goldstein. As one St. Louis Republican politician put it: "Goldstein is either back of Gibson or is back of the men who are back of him."

While full reports of the conference of the St. Louis Senators with the Governor are lacking, none of the Senators was particularly buoyant last night.

Occasion of the Call.
According to one story, the Senators called on a sort of a general invitation extended by the Governor last week for them "to drop in any time." When they called yesterday the Governor reached into a drawer of his desk and at the same time asked them to have cigars. When the box was opened it was found to contain only two cigars, while there were four Senators. All politely said they didn't care to smoke.

There was a remark or two about the snow of the day before and the beautiful snow-covered Callaway Hills, which may be seen from the window of the Governor's private office.

Then the Governor remarked something about Gibson, and the Senators looked at one another. One of them remarked that they "might as well be going," and, after shaking hands with the Governor, they walked out.

It was all very harmonious and everybody was extremely polite, but the Governor hadn't suggested anybody the Senators really wanted for Police Commissioners, and the Senators hadn't said anything about what they would ask of their Democratic friends in the Senate in the matter of confirmations.

FRENCH POSITIONStates That if Full Pay
Is Made, France Will
Nothing for Deval
Regions.The Associated Press.
PARIS, Jan. 28.—In an address to the Chamber of Deputies, Premier Herriot declared that the first thing he must say was that France does not intend to pay her debts.

Continuing his comments on international obligations, the Premier said: "It is not this Government which disavows the principle of contracts towards the allies. It is maintained, however, that there ought to be a reduction of the debt. The Chamber Government's policy on questions of foreign policy, Herriot, in less than a minute, dispersed the storm of inter-allied debts. He addressed on foreign policy several hours. 'I will say very little on this subject,' the Premier told the Chamber, 'because the susceptible certain great friends are susceptible, even if expressing the noblest sentiments, to be interpreted in a way which risks arousing, if not at least embarrassment. It has always been true to her word, she will be so in the question of debts. She will show her good will, but she has the right to expect the same good will from her creditors.'"

Herriot's suggestions. "We are still in the midst of negotiations on this affair of debt. Nothing I might say from tonight of this tribune might be a press polemic through the interpretations which have been my words and that I wish at all costs to avoid." Premier Herriot made no mention that a fresh proposition for settlement was about to be made by France, merely that "we are still in the discussion; don't let us risk even our talks."

Louis Dubois, former president of the Reparation Commission, previously had declared at the conclusion of a long address to the Chamber that the United States should considerably reduce its claims against France, not only in equity and right, but also to save her own interests. "Never has France intended to liquidate her debts either to the United States or to the United States," Dubois said. "We are still in the midst of negotiations on this affair of debt. Nothing I might say from tonight of this tribune might be a press polemic through the interpretations which have been my words and that I wish at all costs to avoid."

Dubois said he fully and honestly set forth by Louis Dubois, former Minister for Development Regions, in his speech to the Chamber last week, but seemed to treat the question of debt from a business man's viewpoint. He divided the American claims to France into three parts. "One," he said, "is of a moral nature—the American participation in the war. The other is of a financial order, and it is subdivided into a commercial debt, which is unquestioned, and a political debt, which I will speak of." Dubois recalled that Finance Minister Clementel in recapitulating the word "memoire" of the debts, but one had not said in detail his expiation, and that we in no sense renounced payment and to understand the word "memoire" signified the amount of these debts, definitely determined. Dubois gave the figures of the debt to the United States on Jan. 1, 1924, as $2,933,000,000 principal, $456,000,000 interest at 5 per cent, which was equivalent to 3,389,000,000 gold marks. The United Kingdom fixed, capital interest, at 12,540,000,000 marks. "Our debts to Great Britain," Dubois said, "have nothing in common with those of the United States because from the very beginning the war France and Britain associated as one in its prosecution by the terms of the Clemenceau agreement of August 24, 1918, and the countries agreed to place all financial resources in common until the end of the war."

Dubois estimated that under the plan Germany would have to pay 15,000,000,000 gold marks ($25,000,000,000) and he refused to demand their more than 100,000,000 gold marks. "We would get little more."

MUSIC

Rachmaninoff Humanizes His Musical Science With New Arduous and Pigments.

BY RICHARD L. STOKES.
T many of us the interpretative genius of Sergei Rachmaninoff has always resembled an analytical instrument, probing with insatiable curiosity into the recesses of every measure he plays. His research was as scientific as ever throughout his pianoforte recital last night at the Odeon, but it was suffused with a new warmth and glow. As a consequence, his performance will live in the memory as one of the most felicitous adventures of many years of concert going.

A large audience was swiftly beamed into a mood approaching adoration, which exploded, at the end of the formal program, in a tempest of hand-clapping and stamping which could be allayed only by five extras in a row. The pianist's iron spirit itself was softened by this historic tribute. The sombre visage began laboring with the strange convulsions, which after a bit could be identified as smiles. There were at least half a dozen of these joyful grimaces, which, in the saturnine Russian, were equivalent to the most riotous hilarity.

Old-fashioned, but Novel.
Candidly, his program was at once conservative and unacknowledged. That is to say, the works selected were in the dactylic style to which the public ear is accustomed. At the same time, many of them are but rarely played. The printed numbers were as follows: Capriccio on an Air de Ballet from Gluck's "Alceste," by Saint-Saens; Schumann's pianoforte concerto in G minor; Chopin's fourth Scherzo, in E major, Op. 54; his third Etude, in E major, Op. 10; and his third Ballade, in A flat major, Op. 47; Rachmaninoff's own Etude Tableaux and one of his preludes, and Godowsky's arrangement of the "Artist's Life" waltz, by Johann Strauss. The extras were Schumann's version of a melody by Gluck, one of Chopin's mazurkas, Moussorgsky's "Hopak," Chopin's waltz in C-sharp minor, Tchaikovsky's "Humoresque," and an Etude by Debussy.

In nearly every measure of this list of essays was a transparency to crystalline that one could see directly through the playing into the music itself. No pianist chisels a melody with more exquisite grace of contour. Few command such a palette of colors; the incessant changes of hue were like the prismatic dance of a spectrum, or the streaming of a banner of changeable silk along the wind. There were phrases carved as delicately as the goldsmith's of Cellini. And those fascinating hands, like as a pair of Greek athletes, achieved a speed, virility and ease which was no less than mythological.

Some Outstanding Moments.
Memorable for one hearer was the lovely and fervent lyricism of the slow movement of the Schumann sonata; and also the intaglio perfection of the E major Etude, concerning which Chopin himself is quoted as saying that "never in his life had he written another such melody." In the "Hopak" of Moussorgsky, Rachmaninoff proved that his spirit can dance as the goldenly gleaming in Tchaikovsky's "Humoresque" that there was laughter all over the house. The "Artist's Life" was an object lesson in how a Viennese should be played, with rhythmic now vigorously flexible, and now sharply defined.

The principal question of the evening rose over the interpretation of the familiar A-flat Ballade, broken octaves of the middle section were played at a volubility tempo, with the melody placed in the upper notes and the lower ones submerged into mere touches of accompaniment. Any day, it was a new reading not inconsistent with the tale on which the Ballade is said to be based—that of a fairy who entices a false knight to walk with her on the waves of a Swiss lake, and there he drowns.

HUSBAND AND BROTHER OF WOMAN DIE FEW HOURS APART

Third Relative of Mrs. Mary Kelsey of Wise Station, St. Louis County, Succumbed Next Day.

Mrs. Mary E. Kelsey of Wise Station, on the St. Charles road in St. Louis County, was doubly bereaved Friday when the deaths of her husband and brother occurred only a few hours apart. In addition to these, another relative, name and relationship could not be learned, died at Pana, Ill., Saturday.

The husband, James E. Kelsey, who was 52 years old, expired at his home at 1:50 Friday afternoon. At 11:30 that night the brother, Charles M. Young, died at his residence, 4622 Easton avenue, and the next day came the news of the relative's death at Pana.

Both Kelsey and Young were buried yesterday, funeral services for the former being held at the residence at 1:30 p. m., with interment in Lake Charles Cemetery. Services for Young were held at 2:30 a. m. at an undertaking establishment at 4522 Easton avenue, with burial in Calvary Cemetery. Kelsey left two children, James and Harry E. Kelsey.

Funeral of Robert W. Bird.
Services to be held today from 10 to 11 a. m. at the residence of Mrs. Bird, 724 Belmont avenue, Monday afternoon, will be held today at 4 p. m. from 4449 Olive street. He was 58 years old and had been associated with the shoe industry in St. Louis and Chicago for 25 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie E. Bird, and a daughter, Mrs. Laura Bird Stocker.

Funeral services for J. M. Egan, vice president in charge of operations for the Missouri Pacific Railroad, who died suddenly Monday night, were held this morning at the New Cathedral, Lindell boulevard and Newstead avenue. Burial will be at the Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky., tomorrow. The body will be sent to Louisville tonight on a special train over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

REDUCTION OF SECOND-CLASS MAIL RATE NOW PROPOSED

Georgia Senator Offers Substitute to Plan to Increase Charge—Progress on Measure Slow.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Action on a proposal to reduce the present second-class mail rates rather than adopt the provision for increases was in order when the Senate proceeded with the consideration today of the postal pay and rate increase bill.

The amendment, offered by Senator George (Dem.) of Georgia, would cut the rates on advertising matter in publications to those in effect before July 1, 1920. The bill, as framed by the Senate Post-office Committee, proposes increases over the existing rates.

The Senate has made slow progress on the second-class rate section so far, practically all of yesterday having been devoted to consideration of the amendment by Senator Butler (Rep.) of Massachusetts to retain the preferential rate of 14 cents a pound allowed

You Who Take

milk of magnesia, please accept a bottle free of this NEW form that multiplies its benefits

THAT the already remarkable benefits of plain magnesia can be multiplied is the most recent finding of modern scientific research.

A new form of magnesia has been found. A mintrated product offering results heretofore undiscovered.

Now, as a national better health movement, a test is being offered. Please use the coupon and make it.

What it is

Multiplied new advantages

It is called Mintrated Cream of Magnesia. A magnesia that embodies all the benefits of plain milk of magnesia, plus other important factors.

That not only neutralizes excess stomach acids, but removes the gas that forms as well. Thus doubling its power over old ways.

A mintrated product that is a delight to take. None of the flat after-taste of old-time preparations.

Stops stomach gas in 15 minutes

It relieves stomach gas in fifteen minutes. That is one place where plain magnesia failed. It merely neutralized excessive stomach acids and cleared the bowels. Failed to relieve the stomach of its gas. It relieves most trying cases of constipation. It acts to neutralize excessive stomach acids.

It aids in re-establishing correct "acid balance" in the stomach.

It clears the intestinal tract of its poisons.

It combats the absorption into the blood of toxic poisons from the intestinal tract that keep people below normal and constantly ailing.

It is not habit forming. Even when taken every day. That is because of its unique composition. A method in safe contrast to habit-forming pills and drugs.

It relieves indigestion quickly—amazingly. And a delight to take. That is due to its mintrated property. The property no other milk of magnesia embodies.

No "chalky" taste

And the same property gives it the inviting coolness of mint. Thus it is a refreshing change from the flatness of plain magnesia.

Children love to take it. Every mother knows what this means.

A bottle free—obtain it

In justice to yourself and yours, make the test at our expense.

See for yourself the latest results of modern scientific research for a healthier, better people. Clip the coupon now before you forget. Present it to any of the stores listed here for bottle free. Do this today.

DENIES THREAT OF "DEROGATORY" TALES

Solicitor for Theatrical Journal Says "Big Men" Gave Money Merely to Exploit "Their Hobbies."

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Persons of unusual means and prominence were mentioned in the trial of Stephen G. Clow, publisher, and three advertising solicitors of Broadway Brevities, as having paid substantial amounts for "advertisements" in that publication without, in some instances, receiving any mention in its pages.

Clow, testifying today, denied that Broadway notables had advertised to prevent unfavorable comment in the magazine. He said he had never published or suppressed articles for the purpose of exacting money.

Otto H. Kahn, Julius Fleischmann, Col. Jacob Ruppert, W. Averell Harriman, Percival Hill, Rosina Galli, danseuse, and others were among Brevities' "advertisers," according to testimony yesterday of one defendant, who denied he had ever employed threats of "business." Clow and his solicitors are being tried before Federal Judge Mack and a jury on charge of using the mails to defraud.

A. B. Brown, one of the solicitor-defendants, admitted under cross-examination by Assistant United States Attorney Mattuck that he had collected for "advertising" the sums given from the following persons:

Otto H. Kahn, $250; James B. Seaman, resident of the Seaman Paper Co., $1250; Julius Fleischmann, $500; Arthur S. Friend, president of the Distinctive Pictures Corporation, $250; Arch Selwyn, $200; Paul Bonwit of Bonwit-Teller Co., $350; Tex Rickard, $250; Frank J. Goodall, president of Goldwyn Pictures Corporation, $200; Col. Jacob Ruppert, $250; Rosina Galli, $150; Percival Hill, president of the American Tobacco Co., $100; W. Averell Harriman, president of the United American Steamship Lines, $500; and Jesse Lasky, of Famous Players-Lasky Co., $2000.

Didn't Discuss Rates.

Brown said he never found it necessary to discuss circulation, or advertising rates, and admitted he never tried to learn whether "advertisers" got their money's worth. Some of the "big men" he solicited, he testified, advertised their hobbies, "as big men often do."

Brown denied he knew Fleischmann was having marital troubles when he solicited advertising from him for the Morning Telegraph, on which he was formerly employed. He had said previously that, while soliciting for that paper, Fleischmann had given him a check for $500 and "never used the space."

When he called on Robert M. Hague, superintendent and vice president of the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey, Brown said Hague asked him if Brevities "had a story" about him. The witness declared he never made Hague an offer to suppress stories linking his name to that of Edith Bohé, modiste.

Kahn's $250, Brown testified, was paid for publication of "paris" of a speech by the banker. He denied he ever said of Kahn, "I have plenty of fifth I can lay at his door." Seaman, according to Brown, gave him $750 to cover expenses of investigating an anonymous letter received by Brown regarding a member of Seaman's family.

REPORT 20 CARS OF WHISKY WERE SHIPPED HERE

Federal Agents Said to Have Found New Evidence of Smuggling to St. Louis
From New Orleans.

RESULT OF SEIZURE AT CHAMINADE

Lumber and Bananas the Camouflages—Some of Consignments Diverted to Other Points.

Information that not one carload of whisky, but 20 carloads of liquor, were shipped from Louisiana to St. Louis by a whisky ring, has reached the Government and is being investigated here, in connection with the discovery of the one car on a siding at Chaminaide Station, St. Louis County, last September.

One St. Louis lumber company, according to this information, received several of the camouflaged cars of strong drink and diverted them to other points, including Kansas City and places in Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

Not only lumber, as in the Chaminaide case, but bananas were used as camouflage. It was a case of "Yes, we have very few bananas," for just enough of the fruit was used to cover the cases of bottled goods. Some Italians in the fruit business in Louisiana were interested in making the shipments.

How Inquiry Started.
Shipments were made from the vicinity of New Orleans and the swampy country between there and the Gulf. Failure of the bootleggers to pay a negro employee resulted in a statement to Federal authorities in New Orleans by the negro and prohibition agents, disguised as lumber jacks, were sent to investigate. As is known, one of them, J. E. Matthews, followed the car of "lumber" that was received at Chaminaide for a fictitious "A. C. Grace."

Agent Matthews is here now, pursuing the threads of the new information, aided by agents under the local group chief. Facts are to be presented to Federal grand juries here and in Louisiana.

The investigation is proceeding on the theory that local persons, especially one St. Louis County man, and other Missourians, are involved in the ring.

There was a conflict of authority between three forces of the law in the seizure of the car at Chaminaide. It will be recalled. The forces were Department of Justice agents, prohibition agents and former Sheriff Willmann of St. Louis County, who was there with some of his men.

Willmann Called in Case.
On Dec. 10 a dispatch from New Orleans stated that Willmann, who retired from office Dec. 31, would be called before the Federal grand jury there in the investigation on Jan. 5. The next day it was announced that Willmann was seriously ill of an attack of nervous indigestion that had seized him the night before. It was stated that the illness probably would prevent his going to New Orleans. No further word has come from that city about the grand jury inquiry, but presumably, it was postponed.

GUS NATIONS CORKING UP LEAKS IN DRY ENFORCEMENT LAW

Former Prohibition Officer Working With Antislavery League on Legislative Program.

Gus O. Nations, former prohibition enforcement chief here, has sent a letter to members of the Antislavery League advising them that he has been engaged by the league to draft bills involving prohibition enforcement for presentation to the present session of the Legislature.

The letter is in the nature of an appeal to members to aid the league's campaign for enforcement and states that Nations is contributing his legal services without compensation.

Dr. A. H. Post, State superintendent of the league, is in Jefferson City today in conference with members of the Legislature. He said Nations had been assisting him in an advisory capacity.

There are one or two little leaks in the present law," Dr. Post said. "The league would like to see them put up and a strict enforcement measure drawn. The league has no bill of its own, particularly, but will get behind one of several bills now in process of preparation which most closely meet its ideas. I would favor one law. In this instance, with enforcement provisions that would enable it to overcome some of the difficulties that are now faced."

Packing Company to Incorporate.
The Standard Packing Co. of East St. Louis with a capital stock of $100,000 yesterday filed articles of incorporation in the office of Recorder of Deeds Otto Weibert in Belleville. The incorporators are George E. K. after, Peter Reuter, Edward Roseow and Julia B. Stauder.

FORMER POLITICAL LEADER, WHO IS DEAD

JOHN KRATZ.

PROMINENT MEN TO ACT AS PALLBEARERS FOR JOHN KRATZ

Funeral Services for Republican
Politician and Former Cafe
Owner Set for Friday Afternoon.

Funeral services for John Kratz, Republican politician and former cafe proprietor, who died at the Deaconess Hospital yesterday, will be held at an undertaking establishment at 2721 Cherokee street at 1:30 p. m. Friday, with burial in the New St. Marcus Cemetery.

Kratz, who had been in failing health for some time, became seriously ill three weeks ago and his death resulted from uremic poisoning complicated by a weak heart. He was 58 years old.

Honorary pallbearers include well-known public officials, professional and business men. The active pallbearers are Andrew Stevenson, Arnold J. Hellmich, August Burger, Louis A. H. Oscar Herkert, James N. McKelvey, Conway Elder, C. H. Roger, W. C. Perkins and Charles Hartenstein.

Kratz is survived by two brothers, Charles Sr. and Otto; a sister, Mrs. Charles Kemper; three nieces and two nephews. He left an estate valued at about $250,000, his friends say.

German Claims for Ambassador.
By Radio in the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News.
November 1929.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—An extraordinary example of the "new diplomacy" will be given in the next few days by Baron Maltzan, the new Ambassador to Washington.

Before leaving for America, Baron Maltzan will for three days receive all Germans interested in American questions, listen to their claims, sort them and, upon arriving in America, do what is possible to protect German interests.

ADVERTISEMENT HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the Calotabs Calotab, that is purified from danger and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style cold medicine, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, not the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.

ADVERTISEMENT Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home.
But It Beats Them All for Quick Results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less. Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect of membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

POWERS AGREE ON OPIMUM SUPPRESSION

Only Divergence Is as to Date
When 15-Year Period Begins.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

GENEVA, Jan. 22.—Great Britain, the United States, Japan, France and China have reached a private agreement to fix the period for the suppression of opium smoking at 15 years.

The only major phase of the controversy unsettled is the date at which the period is to begin, but Britons and Americans both indicated that the difficulty is surmountable. Consequently the biggest stumbling block to an international convention on opium has practically been overcome and the success of the conference is assured.

Credit for the agreement is due mostly to the Japanese, who have continuously advanced a compromise when a deadlock was imminent. The proposals of Sugimura, the Japanese delegate, which have been circulating among the various delegations, include a drastic tightening up of production and exportation in the producing countries and the limitation of consumption by anti-smuggling measures in consuming nations.

It is generally conceded that the treaty will be ready within two weeks. The tactics will be to get quick agreement on matters where the divergence is small and to tackle the major disagreements last.

The decision reached regarding central board is satisfactory to the American delegation. The board will be composed of one representative from each nation on the committee of the League of Nations and from the United States.

New Boiled Salad Dressing

New in flavor, new in tang and zest. Made with lemon juice instead of vinegar—the dressings made by all famous chefs make their boiled dressing.

One quart lemon juice, 4 tablespoons salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon mustard, 1½ cups boiling water.

Mix and stir dry ingredients. Add water gradually, stirring constantly. Cook in double boiler until thick and smooth. Heat very slightly. Pour bottled mixture slowly over salad. When well blended, return to double boiler and cook five minutes. Add lemon juice, salt and sugar and heat well.

The California Lemons, practically seedless, juicy, tart, to get the best results.

TO FACE 35TH CHARGE OF TRAFFIC VIOLATION

James Palmer, Negro Chauffeur, His Record-Dating Back to 1919.

Capt. Gerk of the Traffic Bureau today prepared a record of James Palmer, negro chauffeur and service car driver, who has the distinction of being the most-arrested man in the history of the Traffic Bureau.

Palmer is to appear again before Police Judge Homer tomorrow and his six-year record of 35 arrests on 15 different traffic charges will be there for the Judge's perusal. Heretofore, Palmer has got off with comparatively light fines, the highest being $50 on Dec. 21, when he was fined for driving a car without a license.

This sentence is now under appeal. Tomorrow Palmer will be tried on a charge he has not experienced before—parking on Olive street during a prohibition. He was arrested Dec. 12, when he gave his name as James Palm and a fictitious address. "Palm" failed to appear in court, but Patrolman Fisher, who made the arrest, recognized Palmer in court Dec. 21 and the charge was revived.

Palmer's record dates back to 1919. Of the 34 arrests, 12 resulted in fines of from $5 to $25, with the $10 fine now under appeal. Nine cases were dismissed on payments of costs and the others were dropped without cost to Palmer for various reasons. The offenses charged include speeding, careless driving, no tail lights, failure to observe boulevard stop, no service license, unnecessary noises and parking abate.

PATIENT SAYS HE WILL BE 108 YEARS OLD IN MARCH

Robert Vollmer, at City Hospital,
States He Will Be 108 in St.
Louis in 1917.

Robert Vollmer, a patient at city hospital, says he will be 108 years old if he lives until March 5 next.

Vollmer, who was taken to the hospital from a hotel at 719 North Sixth street, yesterday, suffering from the debility of age, told physicians he was born March 5, 1817, at what is now Main street and Lucas avenue. The latter street was then known as Green street. Vollmer said:

The patient claims to have been one of the first pupils to attend St. Joseph's Parochial School, established at Eleventh and Biddle streets more than 80 years ago, and also to have attended a private school at Seventh and Carr streets.

Vollmer says he traveled extensively after completing his education and, being in St. Louis at the outbreak of the Civil War, joined the Confederate forces, with which he served throughout the war. Returning to St. Louis after the war, Vollmer says he worked for various manufacturing firms as a transporter. He married, but says his wife and their three sons are dead, and that he has no known living relatives. His father, Robert Vollmer Sr., was a glass merchant, according to Vollmer, who cannot remember where his father's place of business was.

Vollmer claims never to have found it necessary to use glasses and has retained all the front teeth of his lower jaw. In the event of improvement in his condition, Vollmer will be removed to the City hospital.

BARFOOT MAN IN NIGHT SHIRT CHASES BURGLAR ON STREET

Tells of Knocking Down Man Who Stood Beside Bed Armed With a Big Hunting Knife.

Anyone who happened to be near Fourteenth and Market streets at 1 a. m. today might have seen a man in a nightshirt and bare feet chasing a burglar over ice-coated sidewalks. The burglar got away near Pine street, but the pursuer, Frank Miller, of 1644 A Market street, after he got back to his room and thawed out called a policeman.

Miller said he awoke about 1 o'clock and saw the intruder with a big hunting knife, standing beside the bed. By a ruse, he got the burglar to turn around and then knocked him down four times. The last blow was enough, said Miller, for the burglar bounded downstairs with Miller at his heels. A felt hat with the mark of an Easton avenue store was turned over to the police as a clue.

Grading and Paving Contracts Let.
Contracts for grading a subway under the Illinois Central tracks in East St. Louis and paving of two miles of highway west of New Athens were let yesterday in the office of County Highway Superintendent Thomas in Belleville, by the St. Clair County Board of Supervisors.

Kesley Brothers Construction Co. of East St. Louis secured the grading job on a bid of $652,244 and the Hoffken Construction Co. of Belleville got the paving job on a bid of $48,547.99.

180 Barrels of Beer Destroyed.
Deputy United States Marshal Thomas Elton of St. Louis came to Fischbach's Brewery on Clay street, and dumped out 180 barrels of beer under orders of the Federal Court and fined Fischbach $1500 last week. The beer was made by fast prohibition and was being sold at a profit. The permit when the company lost its permit about a year ago. The beer had been in charge of the Government since that time.

GERMANY IN NOTE TO ALLIES INSISTS IT HAS DISARMED

Asks for Particulars of Violation of Versailles Treaty as Charged by Ambassadors.

SAYS AFFAIR IS OF 'GRAVE SIGNIFICANCE'

Declares Nation Is Entitled to Evacuation of Cologne Area, Fate of Which Is Uncertain.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Jan. 23.—Germany's reply to the recent note of the allied Ambassadors, which was handed to Lord d'Abernon, the British Ambassador, by Foreign Minister Stresemann in Berlin, again protests against the refusal of the allies to give immediately a bill of particulars on Germany's alleged violations of the Versailles. It reasserts that Germany has really disarmed and is entitled to the evacuation of the Cologne area.

The Berlin communication of yesterday reviews the note of the Council of Ambassadors, which was handed to Chancellor Luther Monday, and which declines to examine the question of the non-evacuation of Germany or to go into further details regarding the reasons for maintaining the allied forces in the Cologne zone.

The German note says the allies have given "merely a formal reply which in no sense advances an affair of such grave significance to Germany and European reconciliation."

The Stresemann communication continues: "The allied Governments continue to keep the German Government, as well as public opinion, in ignorance of the material facts on which they seek to base the decisions they took several weeks ago. The German people again find themselves accused of not having executed the Treaty without being given the possibility of defending themselves against these accusations. The allied Governments draw from a unilateral judgment of facts the gravest consequences and, in their last note, refuse in the most formal manner even to examine the affair jointly with the German Government."

The note adds that Germany cannot understand why she is reproached with "misunderstanding" articles 428 and 429 of the Versailles treaty. In this connection it states:

"She has not contested and does not contest that these articles make the evacuation of the northern zone of the Rhine on Jan. 10, 1923, depend upon certain conditions. Her affirmation bears only on the point that these preliminary conditions have been executed. ## Feel Stiff and Achy After Every Cold?

Do You Have Constant Backache? Feel Old and Lame and Suffer Sharp, Rheumatic Pains? Then Look to Your Kidneys!

DOES every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you worn-out and utterly miserable? Do you feel old and lame, stiff and rheumatic? Does your back ache with a dull, unceasing throb, until it seems you just can't stand any longer?

Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills are mighty hard on the kidneys. They fill the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys must filter off. The kidneys weaken under this rush of new work; become congested and inflamed.

It's little wonder, then, that every cold leaves you with torturing backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and annoying bladder irregularities.

Don't delay! Get a box of Doan's Pills. Give your weakened kidneys the help they need. Assist them, also, by drinking pure water freely, eating lightly and getting plenty of fresh air and rest. Doan's Pills have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These St. Louis Folks:

E. SINN, Prop. of Delicatessen Store, 4225 Fair Ave., says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and put them out of fix. My back was lame and aching and when I stooped catches took me across my kidneys. My kidneys acted irregularly. After using Doan's Pills I was cured. No symptom has returned."

MRS. HARRY WAGENSELLER, 4442 Evans Ave., says: "When I suffered from kidney trouble I had a pain across my back, especially when I went upstairs. Sometimes the pains were sharp but usually it was a dull backache. This tended to make me feel tired and worn out. I thought that it was a cold on my kidneys when they acted, so I started using Doan's Pills. Soon all the trouble disappeared."

partly digested food passes into the intestines, it produces poisons which, absorbed through the system, cause auto-intoxication, mental restlessness, irritability, lumbago, neuralgia, depression, dizziness, vertigo, severe headache, and intestinal disorders, such as constipation, hemorrhoids, piles, and sciatica, cirrhosis of the liver, biliousness—sometimes even cancer of the stomach and intestinal ulcers and cancer; in fact, doctors say that over seventy non-organic ailments can be traced to an acid-stomach.

Acid-Stomach Ruins Health As Acid-Mouth Ruins Teeth

Acid-Stomach has made millions weak, ailing, listless and unfit, and as you value your future life and happiness—don't let it get hold of you. It may be undermining YOUR health and strength without your knowing it. There is nothing surprising in this. Most people are not aware of the presence of the acid which forms in the mouth caused by the fermentation of bits of food that lodge in the teeth. This acid is shockingly tart, yet powerful enough to eat right through the hard enamel and cause the teeth to decay. Think, then, how important it is to get rid of Acid-Stomach in order to insure robust vigorous bodily health.

$94,500 FOR HANDLING FIVE CASES FOR STATE

Fees of Lawyers Here Hired by Millsbaugh Exceed Cost of Attorney-General's Staff.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 23. — St. Louis attorneys employed as special counsel by the State Finance Department in the liquidation of housing trusts and failed banks, were allowed $94,500 in fees in three housing trust and two failed bank cases within the last two years, it was learned today. These five cases were among the 21 housing trusts liquidations and 72 bank failures in the hands of the Finance Department in the last two years.

The total fees allowed attorneys in the 103 housing trust and bank cases have not been disclosed by Finance Commissioner Millsbaugh. However he has been directed to compile that information under a subpoena issued by a Senate Committee investigating the payment of large fees in bank and housing trust cases.

Fees allowed the St. Louis attorneys in the five cases would pay the salaries of the Attorney-General and his seven regular and special assistants for nearly three and one-half years. The salaries of the Attorney-General and his staff total $27,500 a year. The law designated the Attorney-General's Department as the legal advisor of all State departments.

Fees for St. Louis Attorneys.

In three housing trust cases, four St. Louis attorneys who represented Millsbaugh, acting as receiver, were paid the following fees:

United Home Builders of America, $25,000; Union Home Builders, $12,500; Lincoln Housing Trust, $22,000. The attorneys were Thomas E. Francis, former Circuit Judge Vital W. Garesche, Arthur J. Freund and Wilbur B. Jones.

Francis was allowed $25,000 fees as special counsel for Millsbaugh in liquidation of the failed Chippewa Bank of St. Louis. Francis said he would pay four other attorneys, who assisted him, from the fees allowed. Francis also participated in the allowance of $10,000 in fees for liquidation of the closed Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Moberly. Part of the fees went to Oak Hunter, Moberly attorney, who is a member of the House of Representatives.

The fees to special attorneys of the department are paid from the assets of the housing trusts or closed banks. The fees are allowed by the Circuit Court upon application of the Finance Commissioner's special counsel.

Millsbaugh today sent to State Senator Frank Farris, chairman of the Senate committee, a list of banks now in course of liquidation, and the special counsel employed in each case, but furnished no figures on the attorneys' fees paid.

Failure of Millsbaugh to send to the committee the amount of fees paid the 49 special attorneys employed in the liquidation resulted today in the issuance by Farris of a subpoena for Millsbaugh to appear before the committee tomorrow morning.

The Commissioner has announced that the information on fees desired by the committee is not part of records of his office and could be obtained only from the records of the courts which approved the fees. Millsbaugh will be questioned as to whether it is not a fact that his correspondence files contain the information sought in many of the cases. Several days ago he admitted to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he could obtain some information sought by the committee. He refused to give the information to the reporter on the ground that it was contained in the confidential files of the office which the law required should be kept secret.

Francis in Eight Cases.

Millsbaugh's list showed 46 banks are in course of liquidation or liquidation completed since 1922 in which 49 different attorneys have been employed. Failure of these banks occurred from 1921 to 1924. Millsbaugh has not made an appointment of special counsel thus far for 14 of the banks failing last year, in which liquidation has been started.

The name of T. E. Francis appears on the list as special counsel in the cases of eight of the banks. They are the People's Bank of De Soto, Commercial Bank of Bland, Milan State Bank and People's Bank of Hale, which closed in 1921; the Night and Day Bank of St. Louis, and Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Moberly, closed in 1922; Kirksville Trust Co. and Chippewa Bank of St. Louis, closed in 1923. Francis is not listed as counsel for Millsbaugh in liquidation of the Holland Banking Co. of Springfield, although he represented Millsbaugh until Roscoe Patterson of Springfield was appointed.

R. R. Brewster of Kansas City, Republican leader, was appointed special counsel in the case of the Guaranty Trust Co. of Kansas City, closed last year. Among others on the list are Case and Miller of St. Louis, James Bond of Pacific, Oak Hunter of Moberly, Ernest Green, J. P. Painter, Horace Ruark, C. G. Shepard, Gallivan and Finch, and O. H. Scott.

CONSTIPATION means WEAKNESS

Constipation is practically universal among civilized human beings. It is a national curse causing inefficiency and physical unpreparedness. It causes disease, premature old age, lessens endurance and resistance, and many times fatal illness is directly traceable to its obnoxious results. The clear eye, healthy look, vim, vigor and vitality can be had only when the bowels are free and are moving regularly.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Family Laxative

—promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a gripping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long and extensive practice, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were misdirected through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.

Gently Restores The Bowels To Health

The first dose will gently ease the bowels to action and as Nature resumes her proper functions, the dose may be gradually decreased. Your bowels should act at least twice daily. If they do not, you need Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. 10,000,000 bottles sold annually prove its effectiveness. Used nationally for over 10 years.

It is sold every where medicine is sold—and guaranteed. Try it at our risk. Your druggist will return your money if it fails to do as promised.

-and No Place to Go!

We find ourselves, almost without realizing it, a nation on wheels.

We drive or ride in 16,000,000 motor vehicles.

We pack the paved highways coming in and out of town. We over-run even so-called remote regions. And we are pounding to pieces all but permanent roads.

Next year 4,000,000 new cars will be on the road. Compared to this increase, the mileage of new permanent roads will be insignificant.

We don't want to be a nation on wheels, with no place to go.

The answer is, build more, and where necessary, wider concrete roads—and start building them now.

Not in a long time have general conditions been so favorable for carrying on such public works as permanent highway building.

Your highway authorities are ready to carry on their share of this great public work. But they must have your support.

Tell them you are ready to invest in more Concrete Highways, now.

NURMI AGAIN BEATS JOIE RAY, SETS HIS 13TH WORLD RECORD

Finn Passes His Rivals With Ease, After Letting Americans Set Hot Pace

Frigerio, Italian Walker, Receives Ovation on First Appearance in America—Harold Osborn Sets New Indoor High-Jump Record.

By Charles E. Parker,
Of the New York World Sport Staff.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Paavo Nurmi set the thirteenth world record of his American visit, last night. The incomparable Finn, shifting from long distance tests to the three-quarter mile run, ran Joie Ray, the record holder, and four other Yankee stars into submission and broke the worsted at the finish in 3 minutes 34.5 seconds.

The former mark set by Ray eight years ago and unapproached since that time was 3 minutes and 3 seconds. Nurmi's last and most thrilling victory came late in the program of the annual two-night meet of the Milwaukee Athletic Association in Madison Square Garden and was witnessed by a throng of over 12,000.

That throng rose on its feet as the blond-haired Nordic swept to his great triumph and the ovation according him surpassed anything yet seen in track athletics. Ray draws the "pole" from a competitive standpoint the race was easily the best in which Paavo has competed. Lined abreast of the final lap, the mark holder, Jimmy Connolly, former intercollegiate and national champion; Lloyd Hahn, the Boston A. star, and Leo Larive, the Holy Cross youngster. The luck of the draw favored the Americans, for Paavo drew the outside lane and Joie Ray the pole.

It was the general belief that the American pair appeared to be engaging in a combination to hold Nurmi in third place, for several times when the flying visitor sought to edge into the lead Connolly would swing wide and check his rush. But the wonder runner was not to be denied. He succeeded in slipping past Connolly two laps from home, and on the first turn of the final lap made his drive to overcome the slight lead Ray still enjoyed.

Joie strove gallantly to hold to his advantage but he was pitted against a man who has not been beaten in a scratch race in five years. With scarcely any show of strain or additional effort Paavo whirled past the Chicago runner and in a stride had opened a gap and finished a good eight strides in the lead and slowing up as he crossed the finish line in record time.

New World's Jumping Record Set. Harold Osborn, the sensational all-around athlete of the Illinois A. A., added to his accomplishments when he set a new world's record of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches in the special invitation high jump. He had been invited to take part in the outdoor record for the high jump and has the record pentathlon score to his credit. He was pitted against one of the best fliers ever assembled for such a test last night, including Leroy Brown, former champion, competing in a special mouth athlete and joint holder of the indoor record of 6 feet 8 1/2 inches. Clarence Brown, the former collegiate champion, R. J. Juday, the national title holder, and several others.

They started with Osborn until the 6 feet 2 inch mark was attained but were unable to clear that height with him. Osborn, who cleared of first place, then had the bar raised to the 6 feet 4 1/2 inch mark and on his first attempt cleared the bar for the new record.

That success prompted him to make an effort much higher, but he failed, but his three efforts to the Associated Press. PARIS, Jan. 28.—Edouard Mascart retained the featherweight championship of Europe last night by knocking out Danny Frush in the second round of what was to have been a 15-round bout. The end came after one minute and 20 seconds of battling in the second round. The victory of Mascart is considered as giving him the right to challenge Louis "Kid" Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., for the world's featherweight title.

In the first round Mascart attempted to box with the Englishman and was outpointed by a wide margin. Immediately the going rang for the second round Mascart rushed out of his corner and began slugging furiously, unopposed, on Frush's straight left. The French boy maneuvered Frush into a neutral corner and sent a heavy left swing to the pit of the Englishman's stomach and crossed a short right to the jaw, ending the bout. Paul Fritsch defeated Fred Bretteau on points after 12 hard rounds of battling. Bretteau originally had been booked to meet Johnny Dundee at 135 pounds, but Dundee returned to the United States. Bretteau had difficulty in making the weight and announced that hereafter he will fight in the welterweight class.

Luis Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight, dressed in evening clothes, referred a 10-round bout between the waterweights Bill Hone of England and Pauline, a Frenchman. Pauline won on points. Firpo received a warm welcome from the French crowd.

As a diversion to the regular entertainment of the evening, motion pictures showing Johnny Dundee in training were shown. The pictures were greeted with cheering and cat-calls from the 1000 persons present.

Groove Your Swing and Plan Your Shots, Longworth Advises

Too Many Golfers Use a Different Stroke Each Time and Result Is They Don't Know Where They Are Going — Manion's Style Praised.

By Art Longworth,
Professional at the St. Louis Country Club.

NO. 15—TRUSTING TO LUCK. At least 75 per cent of the rank and file of golfers are in the class that trusts to luck. By that I mean the golfers who step up to a ball, and know only that they are shooting in a general direction and who really have no idea just where the ball is going. As far as any particular direction is concerned, or any target toward which the ball is shot, they might as well be blindfolded.

Why are they in this class? That's easy to answer. Because they have not grooved their swing. That is what you must do to play consistent golf. The golfers who have to trust to luck swing a different way each time they stroke the ball. I admire a one-shot golfer—that is, a player who grooves his swing and swings the same way for every shot over and over. Walter Hagen is that sort of golfer. So is Bobby Jones and so is Jimmy Mahan, the brilliant St. Louis the terrain. I have seen golfers play a hole time after time in the same way, always taking the same of the fairway where a bunker was in the way, whereas, had they shot been placed just a few feet to the other side of the bunker, it would be a snap.

Remember the Hazards.

Traps and bunkers are not to make you place your shots, but make you plan your approach and the golfer who seems to place his shots, to use his hole instead of just trusting to luck, will find that he is taking more strokes off his score. Of course, there is a certain element of luck in golf. One ball may hit a bunker wall and drop back and another ball may hit short and bounce over. But the long run the well-planned shots will win. Don't trust to luck. Make your own luck by being smart.

Plan Your Shots.

Some golfers who have a fairly good swing and all the shots, trust to luck too much. That is, they do not take into consideration all the factors in a match. On almost every hole there is an easy way and a hard way to play. It may be wise to shoot to the right of the fairway from the tee. Or the best approach to the green may be from the left. My advice is to study each hole, study the entrance to the green. Determine which way you want to play it, which way is the easier, and then be smart when you play that hole again. Take advantage of your knowledge of

PIKERS' VALLEY HOPES RISE WITH THEIR THIRD STRAIGHT VICTORY

Missouri Quintet, After Leading in First Period, Is Smothered in Second

Great Basket Throwing by Jack Minner Directly Responsible for Washington's 27-16 Success — Local Five Meets Oklahoma Saturday, and Tigers Again on Monday.

By Arthur Schneff.

The 3500 basketball fans who watched the Washington University team play the University of Missouri quintet at the Coliseum, last night, sat through many agonizing minutes of play before they saw the Pikers finally triumph by a 27-16 score. It was the hardest fought game of the season here, and it was not until the final five minutes of the contest that Coach Don White's players established their superiority.

Although the Pikers had been general favorites to win, the game started off with a furious battle. As the game started, it was evident the Pikers were not at their best. Their passes lacked their usual snap, and their shooting was entirely inadequate. This, coupled with Missouri's evident determination and a splendid defense, held the Pikers powerless. Fifteen minutes passed before Washington gained a field goal, the only one the team scored in the opening period, and as the half ended Coach White's players were leading at 13-10.

Pikers Find the Basket.
But the second half saw a decided change. The Pikers showed sudden return to the form which characterized their victories over Oklahoma and Drake, and in a few minutes the Washington was leading. With the start of the second period, Washington scored seven points in rapid succession to lead 17-10. But the Pikers were still in the fight, and later Missouri was ahead at 18-15. And that was as near as Missouri got to victory.

The Piker superiority was now manifesting itself, and while still guarding was holding the Washington attack was steadily piling up points of victory.

The individual performance of Jack Minner, Piker ace, was the mainstay of the game, although last night as in past games, Minner enjoyed whole-hearted co-operation. Jack was everywhere, his passing from whatever angle or position was deadly, and no Missouri device could hold him in check. On "following-up" shots, Minner was irresistible; and in the end the Pikers put two men on the floor.

DATES ANNOUNCED FOR WOMEN'S TOURNAMENTS

At a meeting of the St. Louis Women's Tennis Bowling Association held yesterday it was decided to start the city handicap tournament on the Washington alleys March 5, with the scratch affair opening on the same date April 11. Entries for the handicap close Feb. 21 and handicaps will be figured on averages of Feb. 20. The entry fee will be $1 an individual for each event.

The handicap committee is made up of Mrs. E. E. Grubb, Mrs. E. Von Bey, Mrs. O. C. Berghaus, Mrs. F. Neu, Mrs. J. P. Schuerman, Mrs. T. M. Hill and Mrs. W. R. Smith. Members of the prize committee are Mrs. E. N. Howard, Mrs. O. C. Berghaus, Miss Anna Godfrey, Mrs. F. Neu, Mrs. E. E. Grubb and Mrs. A. J. Werder.

Never would follow up to convert into a score.

Neiss Is Making Good.
Ollie Neiss again showed his sterling ability as a floor player. On one occasion, while stretched out full length on the floor, Neiss passed the ball to Minner, who dumped it in for a basket. It was such playing that eventually spelled out a Washington victory, although it seemed for a while that the Pikers' title hopes were going to be dashed to pieces.

In addition to the effective man-to-man defense displayed by Coach Bond's men, the Tigers showed several individual players of talent. O'Sullivan and Buchner not only guarded brilliantly, but did most of their team's scoring. Buchner leading the Tigers with two baskets and a free throw.

With three victories to their credit and no defeats, the Pikers will take to the road "this week," confident of being real Valley pennant factors. The strong University of Oklahoma players will be met at Norman Saturday afternoon, and on Monday Washington will play Missouri again at Columbia.

Murray Wires He Will Be Unable To Coach Pikers

Unwilling to Desert Marquette Because of Stadium Project.

The Washington University athletic authorities thought they had found a football coach when Frank Murray, Marquette University's gridiron leader announced himself as a candidate for the position. Murray sent Dr. Edmunds, Washington's director of athletics, a telegram some time ago, saying that Marquette would release him from his contract there if Washington offered him a better opportunity. And he arranged to come to St. Louis for a conference.

The conference was held last week. The Washington authorities said they were very favorably impressed with Murray and Murray said he would be glad to come to Washington. But Murray still had his contract with Marquette. He said he would return to Milwaukee and if he could get his release, he would accept the Piker offer with pleasure.

Yesterday his telegram came, but it contained no acceptance. Instead, said Murray, he would remain at Marquette. The telegram was as follows:

"Mr. Coffey, athletic director, personally willing to release me, but feels that Marquette cannot afford to change its athletic program with new stadium to be paid for. Under circumstances I cannot conscientiously leave Marquette. I never would feel right at Washington. Hence must pass up your offer. Extremely grateful for your courteous consideration and sorry this unforeseen obstacle arose. Letter with full explanation following."

If the Pikers aren't able to get a first-class man to take charge of football, it is possible that Dr. Edmunds will again coach the squad.

Lambert Defeats Stein.
Wooster Lambert defeated Otto Stein Jr. by 10 points in a split picking bowling match completed on the Washington alleys yesterday. In yesterday's block, Stein won, 525 points to 498. Lambert ran up a big lead in the first half a week ago.

Santal Beats Renthorp.
By the Associated Press.
WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 28.—Ad Santal, California, light heavyweight wrestler, defeated Charley Renthorp, Little Rock, Ark., in straight falls here last night, taking the first with an arm scissor in 54 minutes and the second with a crotch hold in 21 minutes.

Concerning Mr. Quigley.

MR. ERNEST QUIGLEY of St. Mary's and the Big Leagues, is a basketball referee of high standing, as well as an umpire of high degree. He has his little peculiarities, one of which developed last night at the Piker-Missouri basketball game.

Ernest had just made a decision, and the entire Washington section forgot its etiquette and handed Quigley the verbal boot, Quigley lifted a majestic hand and stilled the throng.

"It is a pleasure," he said to the Washington rooters, "to referee a basketball game," he paused a moment and then shot it home—"when the spectators co-operate with the official."

Then he turned and called a foul against Washington University and a Missouri man tossed a basket. All because the spectators had voiced objections to one of his decisions.

It's possible under basketball rules. Sometimes, when Ernest is out there on the diamond and the grand stand is giving him the razz-berry, doubtless Mr. Quigley wishes baseball had basketball rules.

He might not hear himself put in highwayman class so often if the rooters thought he would give a batsman his base for each repetition of booing.

Think It Over.
IN these days of large governmental budgets and insufficient state incomes, our legislators in Jefferson City should take into consideration the possibilities of exploiting sport for revenue production purposes.

The public has always been willing to pay for its fun; but in two respects Missouri has not been willing to permit the public to buy it. We refer to boxing and horse racing, now enjoyed in nearly one-half the states of the Union.

By taxing receipts from boxing and racing the State could materially add to its revenue. To prove this we borrow from the statistics of New York and Maryland.

In New York we find that the State has been paid $1,021,570 as its share of the receipts from boxing exhibitions there since the Walker law became effective, a little over four years ago.

In Maryland the pari-mutuel machines showed that a sum over $51,000,000 was bet at the fall meetings of that State, if a 3 per cent "take" accrued to the State the income from the machines alone must have been over $2,500,000.

With racing and boxing in this State both under commission control and the former under pari-mutuel wagering conditions, a revenue not to be despised would be provided.

Deadlocked.
ED LEWIS was tumbled from his throne by Big Munn, but he seems to be beating back, in the matter of getting revenge. Lewis is taking a fall out of Munn in court.

By means of injunctions he has forced Munn to discontinue his $2500 weekly vaudeville stunts. The battle of the courts will be waged still further, since each is seeking legal redress—Munn to obtain the championship belt from Lewis; the "Strangler" to enjoin Munn from posing as a champion.

Before either injunction is permanently granted we predict that Lewis and Munn will have wrestled again and that Lewis will have won back the title.

Munn is to meet Stan Zipszkyg in Kansas City Feb. 11, but we don't expect the old fellow to

NEW BILL PROVIDES CITY ZONING SYSTEM

Measure Sponsored by Speaker of House Would Solve Growth Problem.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 28.—A zoning bill, giving the legislative bodies of all incorporated cities, towns and villages in Missouri authority to pass zoning ordinances, and to regulate the use of land, is being introduced in the House today by Speaker James H. Thompson of St. Louis and Representative Mervyn H. Davis of Kansas City.

The bill gives authority for regulating the size of buildings, percentage of ground to be occupied, and the location of buildings on lots, and for the use of land for industrial purposes. It would enable the legislative bodies to divide cities into zones for residence, commercial, industrial or other purposes.

One section of the bill provides that any zoning ordinance already adopted by any city of the State shall remain in force, except so far as it may conflict with the bill. The bill is drawn up with the assistance of members of the St. Louis Zoning Commission.

The zoning plan of the Parker-Davis bill provides for appointment of a zoning commission to prepare comprehensive zoning plans for enactment by the municipal legislative body and establishment of a permanent board of adjustment to hear any appeals from orders issued in administration of the ordinance when adopted. It places enforcement of the zoning regulations in the hands of the Building Commissioner or other officer authorized to issue building permits.

Right of appeal to the Circuit Court from rules of the board of adjustment is given in the bill. Five members on board.

The board of adjustment would comprise five members, each appointed for a term of three years. A requirement of the bill is that a municipal legislative body shall not pass a zoning ordinance until a final report on the survey by the zoning commission is presented.

Any regulation of the zoning ordinance, once adopted, may be amended at any time on petition of 10 per cent of the persons affected, the bill states, but the amendment shall become effective only when adopted by a vote of three-fourths of the legislative body.

No provision for damages or compensation of property owners affected by the zoning regulations is made in the bill introduced today. The bill is based on the police power of the State to protect public health and welfare. The title states it is for "the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals and general welfare."

Penalties Provided.

The bill further states that the proposed regulations are to "conserve values of buildings and encourage the most appropriate use of land." A penalty section would enable the city authorities to proceed against any person violating the zoning regulations and prevent the occupancy or use of any buildings or land constructed or put to use in violation of zoning regulations.

Fine of not less than $10 a day nor more than $100 a day for each day a violation is continued is provided by the bill where the violation is shown to be wilful on purpose. The bill fixes the penalty at fine of not less than $100 or more than $250 for each day of violation or both fine and imprisonment.

The authors of the bill inserted one section designed to keep the whole zoning act from being invalidated by an adverse court decision on any one regulation.

This section provides that if one section of the act is held invalid or unconstitutional that decision shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the act.

NEW PLAN TO MAKE STEAM

Inventor Aspects He Can Produce a Flame Inside the Water Itself.

Copyright, 1925, by the Water and Power Publishing Co., New York World.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Oscar Brunner, a young Franco-Swedish inventor, claims to have discovered a revolutionary method of raising the sea in a boiler by producing a flame inside the water itself. By his method, he asserts, the consumption of fuel is only half that now required, and the required steam pressure can be obtained practically instantaneously.

Dr. Brunner describes his invention as follows: Fuel is carburized with air and the mixture then gently forced through a valve into a steel container holding water. The water is ignited and burns inside at a temperature of about 4000 degrees Fahrenheit. The resultant steam passes into a simple boiler for supplying a steam engine. He claims his apparatus costs only half the price of an ordinary boiler.

EASBY-SMITH REWINDS ATTACK ON MORTIMER

Personal Counsel for Charles R. Forbes Follows Laughlin in Defense Argument.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—James S. Easby-Smith, personal counsel for Charles R. Forbes, former director of the Veterans' Bureau, has begun his closing argument in the testimony of Elias H. Mortimer, chief witness for the prosecution.

Easby-Smith's argument came after that of Randolph Laughlin of St. Louis and former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, counsel for J. W. Thompson of St. Louis, co-defendant with Forbes, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Government through veteran hospital contracts.

Laughlin characterized Mortimer as "a perjurer." Lewis told the jury he was "a poor, unhappy man suffering from some sort of mental aberration" and Easby-Smith recalled that during the World War he "threw himself to the green pastures of Washington when millions of his fellow men were offered the testimony to the defense of their country."

Upon agreement between counsel and with the consent of Federal Judge George A. Carpenter, the name of Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, sister of former President Harding, was withdrawn from the record of the trial. Mrs. Votaw, who was an adviser to the Federal Board of Vocational Education under the administration of the Veterans' Bureau, was mentioned in the trial in connection with a letter to Mortimer by J. W. Black, Thompson's partner.

BILL WOULD DIVERT GAS TAX

Senate Measure Would Divide Half of Fund Among Counties.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 28.—An attempt to "pork-barrel" half of the revenue derived from the 2 cents per gallon tax on gasoline appeared in the Senate today in a bill introduced by Senator McCumby. The measure proposed to take one-half of the revenue derived from the tax and apportion it in equal parts among the 114 counties, exclusive of the city of St. Louis, to be used by the County Courts for local roads.

While an active fight for the bill is expected, it has little chance of passage, as its effect would be to retard the completion of the State highway system, for which the tax was voted in the adoption of the amendment.

Senator McCumby said the bill was favored by William Hirth of the Missouri Farmers' Association, who in previous sessions has advocated measures opposed to the early completion of the system of hard-surfaced roads.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The scheduled meeting of the House Judiciary Committee today, at which the charges against Federal Judge George W. English of East St. Louis were to be taken up, was postponed until tomorrow because of the illness of Chairman Graham.

It is expected that the first act of the committee will be to hear Representative Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis, the representative of the Post-Dispatch, and from there obtain a statement of the information upon which Hawes' resolution calling for an investigation of Judge English's official conduct was based. In case of the continued illness of Representative Graham, it is likely that he will empower Representative L. C. Dyer of St. Louis, ranking Republican member of the committee, to call the meeting.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Miss Martha Dyer, daughter of Congressman L. C. Dyer of St. Louis, recently has been made chief resident staff physician at the Gallinger Municipal Hospital here.

The appointment is extraordinary, in view of the fact that Dr. Dyer is only 24 years old. She was graduated a year ago from the medical school of Michigan University with brilliant marks, receiving her degree at the age of 23. She formerly attended Washington University, St. Louis. Dr. Dyer has specialized in skin diseases and is a student in dermatology at Georgetown University.

RAILS PAID OIL SHARES LEAD RISE

Favorable December Earnings Help Former While Price and Production Figures Influence Oils — Franks Improve.

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

The day brought another sensational jump in wheat, steadiness in the foreign exchanges and a firming in the stock market. Before the stock market opened, oil shares showed independent strength as a result of further advances in the price of the commodity and improvement in the production situation. Trading in the morning was decidedly lighter, partly due to poor service with the railroad, and partly because of the fact that the market was somewhat irregular. In the afternoon, however, activity increased somewhat, and the railroad showed renewed signs of life, having remained dormant for the past week or so. Encouragingly, the favorable December earnings and good car loadings and discouraged by the failure of industrial stocks to get anywhere, professionals turned their attention to the grain. At the close, railroad and oil shares were nearly all from a fraction of a point or more. Industrials were irregular and a few specialties were several points up. The index was up 1.54 points, or 1.54 per cent, from 15.000 shares. Bonds were fairly active, with strength in oil and other speculative departments. Call money ruled at 3 1/2 per cent throughout.

Foreign exchanges were generally firm and a good volume of business was transacted. French and Belgian francs in particular were in demand, the former moving up a point to 5.14, and the latter 4 1/2 points to 5.11. Strength in the two currencies may have been connected with reports of impending borrowing in this market, and also a good sentimental effect, perhaps, was produced by a rumor that a loan of $100,000,000 would be made by the French government with regard to the French debt. In sterling was steady, being 1/2 of a cent lower at $1.72 1/2.

As forecast by the record of car loadings during December, railroad earnings during that month were better than those of the same month of the previous year. Net operating income of the first 10 days to report is fully 20 per cent greater than for December, 1924. Although this is looking backward it is nevertheless important for its bearing on railroad credit and expenditure. Not only will the roads this year be in a better position to do necessary financing, but they can afford to make liberal expenditures for the maintenance and rebuilding of their transportation plant. Meanwhile, January traffic is running well above the average, responding time in previous years.

Wheat jumps to $2.05 1/2. With less activity in stocks speculative attention again was attracted to the wheat market, where a burst of speculative buying sent prices well above all records since 1915, with the exception of the Government-controlled period during the war. Reported heavy buying by Russia, Italy and Hungary and sharp upturns in Liverpool and Winnipeg, provided the stimulant to cover short commitments and to get in fresh on the long side. The result was that prices for the May future jumped 6 cents to $2.05 1/2, or nearly 6 cents a bushel above the goal set by those who a few months ago were regarded as rabidly optimistic. The rise in wheat is, of course, based on a shortage in the world supply, but whether Europe will continue to buy in quantity at present or higher prices is by no means a certainty. The grain is needed, and it must be paid for, but there is, of course, a limit to the price that Europe can afford to pay. That limit may be some distance off, but nevertheless a sharp speculative movement usually goes far beyond that conditions warrant. May wheat closed with a net gain of 1 1/2 cents at $2.05 1/2. Corn advanced about 2 cents a bushel in sympathy with wheat. Cotton continued to be a dull, narrow affair, and at a late price of 23 1/2 cents. May futures were 19 points higher.

Steel industry at high rate. The important thing about the quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation is that dividends, both extra and regular, for the year were covered with a good margin. Last year was not a particularly good one for the steel industry. Following a sharp rise in the early months, operations fell away rapidly and prices declined steadily until well into the autumn. Unless, therefore, industrial conditions in this country grew much worse than there is any reason to believe they will, holders of steel common would appear to be fairly certain of receiving $2 a year in dividends. This week's review of the steel industry indicates some slowing down in new business, although there have been further price advances. The industry as a whole is running at from 75 to 85 per cent of capacity and some falling off from this rate could hardly be unexpected. Meanwhile orders for second quarter business are not pressing. Whether the higher prices and increased operations can be maintained will, of course, depend on the extent to which steel goes into ultimate consumption later on. Just now there is a tendency in some quarters to believe that stiffer quotations are given as a jog to speculations against existing contracts.

Steel quotations. NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Steel prices 1 1/2 c. higher for second quarter business. Steel prices 1 1/2 c. higher for second quarter business. Steel prices 1 1/2 c. higher for second quarter business.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Special to the Post-Dispatch. Total sales at the New York Stock Exchange today were 1,642,400 shares, compared with 1,374,400 yesterday, 1,170,000 a week ago and 740,000 a year ago and 20,380,000 two years ago. Sales of stocks are in 100 share lots (except in the case of Standard Oil stock, which is in 100 share lots and value of bonds represent $1000 face value each. Following are today's high, low and closing prices for stocks on the Stock Exchange. Net changes for the day are also given. Symbols: "Partly extra." "Partly extra."

MAY WHEAT SELLS ABOVE $2.00 BASIS ON ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO EXCHANGES

American Markets Advance With 4 5-8d Rise at Liverpool, 8c at Winnipeg and 3 1-2c at Buenos Aires.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 28.—The first time since the outbreak of the war that the price of May wheat has advanced on the St. Louis exchange, it was 4 5-8d higher today, closing at $2.00 1/2. The Chicago market advanced 5-8d to $2.00 1/2. Liverpool advanced 8d to 10s 10d, and Buenos Aires advanced 3 1-2c to 10s 10d.

The advance in the St. Louis market was due to a combination of factors, including a report that the Argentine government had agreed to sell 100,000 tons of wheat to the United States, and a report that the Canadian government had agreed to sell 100,000 tons of wheat to the United States.

A Man With a Thousand Dollars

MAN with a thousand dollars walked into the old offices of S. W. STRAUS & CO. in Chicago about 20 years ago. He invested his carefully saved surplus in a first mortgage security, explaining that he wished to reinvest the money when the mortgage was due and build up a permanent investment fund, as a guarantee against old age and in order to leave something behind him.

Today this man has more than $50,000 invested in sound, first mortgage securities. He has never earned a very large income; never made a "lucky" financial stroke, but he has saved and invested, reinvested his interest and maturing funds and added what he could from time to time. Today he is known as a substantial, successful citizen and faces the future without fear.

What this man has done you can, too. The important thing is to start right and select conservative, safe securities for your savings fund. Straus Bonds furnish the ideal medium for building up a fortune. Investigate the STRAUS PLAN. Write today for our booklet which will show how you, too, can obtain financial independence and success. ## DENIED ORDER TO HALT CUT IN EXPRESS RATES

Western and Southern Railroads Undetermined as to Future Action in Case.

By the Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 23.—Western and Southern railroads are denied a temporary injunction to restrain enforcement of lower express rates in their territories. In a decision of the United States District Court, filed here today, the decision was received here today from St. Louis, where a special commission of three Federal Judges, on Jan. 19 and 20, heard arguments. Fifty-three Western and Southern railroads brought the action more than a month ago on behalf of all railroads in the turn-over filing their application with Federal Judge Booth in St. Paul, who called in Judges Sanborn and Collett to sit with him in the case. The railroads, in opposing the lower rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, declared it would reduce their revenue $5,000,000 annually without affecting the income of the express company, as the commission ordered equalizing increases in Eastern territory.

The case may go to further hearings on its merits or the railroads may appeal directly to the United States Supreme Court if they desire to take further action, but representatives of affected roads here said the course of future action has not been determined upon.

"Attack Made Arbitrarily."
Decision of the Court was dated Jan. 24. It was mailed to St. Paul, arriving today. The order of the Interstate Commerce Commission involved in the action was dated May 17, 1924, and reduced class express rates in express-rate zones two, three, four and five. It is pointed out in the memorandum accompanying the decision.

"It is not claimed that the rates are as low as to be confiscatory and in violation of the constitutional protection," this memorandum points out, "but the broad ground of attack upon the order is that it was made arbitrarily and without evidence to support it."

"It is contended by the plaintiffs that the Interstate Commerce Commission has no power to reduce class express rates in the above-mentioned zones merely because such rates are 'discriminatory' as between said zones and zone one."

About the Rate.
Further contentions of the railroads were that the reduction would not be ordered unless the rates in zones two, three, four and five "are unreasonably high," the memorandum said, and "it is further contended that there is not evidence in the record that the rates in zones two, three, four and five are unreasonably high."

"We do not need to pass upon the contention as to discrimination between zones," the Court declared. "The commission expressly found that the existing rates in the zones mentioned were unreasonably high," the memorandum points out, and the Court concludes that the commission's findings that the rates in zones two, three, four and five are unreasonably high is not without substantial evidence to support it, although, in our opinion, such supporting evidence is unsatisfactory and far from conclusive."

Bomb Explodes in Mail Bag.
By the Associated Press.
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23.—A bomb contained in a package mailed today in the South Fork Postoffice by a man who said he was Giuseppe Siorella exploded a few seconds after it had been placed in a mail bag and wrecked the rear end of the postoffice building. No one was hurt. Siorella handed the package to James Conney, postoffice clerk, who dropped it into the bag, when the explosion occurred. Conney declared the package had been given to him by a man at the Pennsylvania Railroad station. John MacCalla of Boswell, Pa., was identified by Siorella as the man who gave him the package.

NO MORE CASTOR OIL FOR THE CHILDREN
Give Them Haley's Magnesia-Oil

Mother, there's an easy way now to correct that sour stomach and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with the youngsters. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and it's harmless. A big dose for emergencies is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no griping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simply milk of Magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, where most "stomach trouble" originates. The milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble. Both work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil, write him or mail a letter to The Haley M-O Company, Indiana, U.S.A.

The Golden Bed

by WALLACE IRWIN

“I THOUGHT at first she'd made a mistake. But she ought to know the house, oughtn't she? Course I let 'er in. I ast 'er what she wanted, for she was wet to the skin, and she didn't so much as gimme the time of day. Walks up the stairs, proud as a duchess, and went straight into the best front room—you know, that round one—and when I looks in she had went to bed.

“It was all right quare. I had Minnie take off 'er clothes and put on one o' my nighties. But I don't reckon the Duchess—excuse me, I mean Mrs. Holt—knewed a thing that was goin' on. Tut.” She clicked sympathetically. “I've saw 'em look that way befo. A bad cold after a big party in a low dress. It's lung fever. She was hot as fire when I touched her, and off 'er head.

“They shore do some quare things when they're that way. But it did give me a start, her floussin' up to that bedroom jest like it belonged to her. Maybe—

“Hush!” commanded Margaret. The door of the Oval Chamber was open a crack, and through the aperture she could hear the heavy breathing of distempered lungs.

Somewhere in the background Admah Holt hovered, a bent and clumsy shadow; there was an alertness in him, too, as if he were crouching for a spring.

CHAPTER 54.

For Admah Margaret Peake was not there. Even in the face of his closing tragedy she felt this and experienced a pang to know that she counted for so little that she could be an unconsidered witness like the walls and the windows of the decaying room.

From a stark wall fixture, which she remembered, had been concealed under one of Flora Lee's Venetian scones, an unshaded bulb cast its frank light on the bare ugliness of the Oval Chamber. Beside an infamous brass bed crouched Admah Holt, groping tenderly for one of the paper-tinted hands which rested on a musky cotton quilt. On her pillow Flora Lee struggled desperately for breath. Her face was waxen, framed in the lovely hair which clustered about her head, gliding the drab pillowcase. She had lost her beauty, that was true. . . .

But Margaret wondered. Did Admah, who had never seen her as she was, still think her beautiful? Probably, for there was adoration in his eyes, and his voice was very gentle as he called her name, time after time.

Her head was motionless, but her lips had curved to a mysterious smile. Then there was a long, agonizing silence. Huddled beside the rickety bed that seemed an offense to her loved and pampered body, Admah mumbled incoherent things.

“When will the doctor be back?” whispered Margaret to the colored girl Minnie when she came stopping by.

“He say pretty soon,” replied Minnie, giggling softly with embarrassment.

Then Margaret returned to her corner and waited. What a room! Vandal hands had defaced it so that nothing but its shape remained to show where loveliness had been. The walls were stripped of their brocade and recovered with a gaudy rose-patterned paper, already streaked and soiled. A square of carpet, too dusty to reveal its original design, ran cat-cornered under the brass bed. A sheet-iron gas stove, smelling villainously, had thrust its pipe through a sin-covered hole where Flora Lee's dear little mantel-piece with its bluish pilasters and flowery panels had once supported fragile ornaments of spun glass.

Spun glass! . . . Margaret gazed at the little dining creature on the bed and wondered if she would ever rouse and speak to Admah. She had called for him that afternoon. Margaret wondered why, and wished that she could have saved him this agony.

Why was the doctor gone so long? Or was it long? Then she felt an aching in her throat, as if a great arch had arisen there. She was going to cry. Was it for her sister with whom she had romped up and down these halls? Her sister who, by some animal instinct, had returned to die in the only earthly spot she had ever loved? Or was it for Admah Holt whom she longed to lift up and strengthen?

Out of her reverie she heard him calling again.

“Flo Lee! It's me, honey. Don't you know me, honey?”

The dying woman heard. Unexpectedly she opened her eyes, wide and dilated. She turned her head and gave him a smile so soft that it seemed to color her cheeks and restore her beauty.

“Oh,” she drawled sleepily, as if she had just been awakened in the morning. “I'm mighty glad—so glad. Darlin'—Darlin’!”

“I'm here, my sweet,” he whispered, caressing her little hands.

“And—and I sort of thought you'd left me.” Her faint giggle was broken by a fit of coughing. “I didn't quit you, Flo Lee. You know I wouldn't do that,” he told her brokenly. She laughed again, fainter this time.

“You wouldn't—I wouldn't let you. I'm crazy 'bout you. You do love me—don't you?—you wild, bad boy?”

“Honey, you know I do!” He had reached out as if to tear her frail body from the invisible monster.

“You've come back to me, haven't you, Flo Lee? We didn't mean what board into a headstone for her grave.

“Margaret,” he said once, “I never saw that monument I ordered for Flo Lee. I wanted it to be sort of lacy and light. She couldn't stand it under one o' those big, lumberin' tomba.”

At this remark Margaret glanced at him keenly. Not yet, thought she, had the King's curtains parted to show his shadowy spirit, blacker than the blackness.

Then one afternoon, very busy with the day's commonplace in his bright new office, his voice came over wire.

“Margaret, I wonder if you could find time to run out to the Place with me?”

“You mean the River Boulevard?”

“Yes. There's a few things that belong to your family out there. The De Longs want to move in the first of next week. I thought you'd know what I ought to take out.”

Almost eagerly she acceded to his request, for she had heard a new note of interest in his voice.

CHAPTER 57.

A fragrant swirl of odds and ends that might have meant nothing or everything; such were the contents of bureau drawers that Margaret opened one after another; Flora Lee's possessions had always looked like that, a careless jumble of pretty, unrelated things, faintly sweetened by her own perfume. She might have been there yesterday, quarreling, laughing, sipping at the figures in her little world.

How quiet the room was, and how cold! Many of the wardrobe doors were unlocked and very few garments hung on the poles. The servants, no doubt, had helped themselves. It was just as well, perhaps. Provided with the keys which Admah had given her, Margaret opened the closet doors and found a number of lovely dresses which Flora Lee might have worn twice and laid aside. From their folds the same fine scent floated up, a ghostly reminder of the woman whose body lay mouldering under a light and lacy tomb.

Save for the thin gathering of dust on polished surfaces and relics of last year's spider webs, woven from rung to rung among the chair legs, the apartment might have been deserted by Flora Lee half an hour ago. It was a trifle too orderly, thought the servants, apparently had spiders an effort to tidy the place after their last plundering. Many photographs stared from their frames, wearing polite gallery smiles. She had left everything of that sort. A picture of Admah and Flora Lee, immediately after their wedding, smiled from a corner of a bureau. . . . Admah looked so young. It was hard to believe that the same man lurked downstairs, afraid to revisit the rooms of that radiant bride.

Margaret broke the glass of several pictures, tore them, tossed them into a wastebasket. The wedding portrait was among them; then there was one of O'Neill whom she had known when he was a pink cheeked, diffident boy. What was it that Flora Lee had done to man?

She glanced swiftly around the bedroom with its quiet, stale air and drawn blinds. The Venetian bed, the spreading swans, the painted mirrors and pallidly gaud dressing tables . . . and Flora Lee had died in a battered brass bed beside a sheet-iron gas heater that smelled to heaven. Delirious and with death upon her, she had returned to the scene of her family's pride and found everything that her heart detested; poverty, dinginess, ugliness. . . . Margaret looked up and saw Admah in the door.

“You needn't bother about these things,” she told him gently.

“It's all right,” he said, and made a futile gesture as though cobwebs had formed across his eyes. Something that had clouded his vision seemed to slip away then, for he blinked around him, taking in everything that he heart detested; poverty, dinginess, ugliness. . . . Margaret looked up and saw Admah in the door.

CHAPTER 58.

She died at 1 o'clock next morning. Dr. Furness, who had brought in a trained nurse, had ordered the watchers downstairs to wait in a travesty of the Peake drawing room. They had shut out the chattering landlady; her dubious boarders tip-toed by, decently quiet for the occasion. Admah sat still, his face restless with a decision, as if some great question had just been answered for him. He stirred occasionally, moving his lips. But no words came. Once he took out his pipe, gazed into its empty bowl, rummaged his pockets for tobacco. Margaret bribed Minnie to go around the corner to a drug store; and when a package of cheap burgundy was brought in it was Margaret who filled his pipe and held a match that he might smoke. He puffed away, oblivious of her.

“Will you come now?” asked the nurse, appearing finally at the folding doors. They followed upstairs, but Margaret hesitated outside the Oval Chamber which had grown so still that Admah's every footfall saved a echo as it fell inside. Not a sound. Standing in the ghostly corridor Margaret strained her ears and felt that Admah had entered a tomb to pray before dead ashes.

Minutes passed, and at last he came out, the look of exaltation still upon him. Yet tears were streaming down his cheeks.

“She didn't say another word,” he whispered. “But she let me know. You heard her. She didn't want me to quit her—wanted me to love her. She couldn't have talked that way.”

“Not unless she loved you,” replied Margaret.

And with that precious lie she saved him, for in Flora Lee's delirious words her sister had read quite a different meaning from that which had cheered poor Admah's heart. It was not to him that those endearments had been spoken, but to the worthless man who had played with her and gone his way, her stolen jewels in his pocket.

“And I sort of thought she forgave me, didn't you, Margaret?” he asked brokenly.

“For what, my dear? For what?” she cried, and gathered his poor, misguided head to her breast.

CHAPTER 59.

Outside the King's pavilion crouched the young David, dozing and waking as he leaned upon his harp, patient with the knowledge of a song that was to blow rich dreams back into a vacant mind. Inside the heavy tent-folds a stark form loomed, a shadow blacker than the blackness, eyes smouldering dully below the great male sapphire in his turban. Thus Saul, fighting for the spirit that had swooned and all but perished.

So Margaret Peake bided her time, awaiting an opportunity to open the eyes and ears of a man who had imposed solitude and silence upon himself. He let her see him every day, and she began to feel his unexpressed reliance on her strength. Sometimes she would coax him to dine with her at her apartment and they would pass long winter evenings talking on the most commonplace subjects. Occasionally he would give her little scraps of his early history, then check himself suddenly as if ashamed of revealing too much of his beginnings. On her shelves he found a set of popular scientific books, and he liked to hear her read from these—or seemed to. The origin of the world and of lower life and of man, shrewdly guessed at by methodical thinkers of today came as fresh news to Admah Holt. The very impersonality of scientific narrative had an effect of charming him away from the soft spell which he had cast about him. Sometimes he would come unexpectedly out of his reserve and ask a question pathetically reminiscent of the sentimental Admah who had once turned Ma Holt's peppermint

Baby Less Expensive Than Auto

Mrs. M. R. Frere, of Washington, D. C., with her daughter Dorothy Marie Frere. Mrs. Frere and her husband find that it costs less to take care of their daughter than it does to care for their automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Frere have determined, by keeping a budget, that it cost them but $793 to support their child for seven years, or since the girl was born. In a period of eighteen months they have spent a total of $1308.50 for the purchase and upkeep of their little car. These statistics are interesting—to parents, to owners of cars, or to both.

“She liked this mighty well,” he drawled, speaking suddenly like his old self. “She'd be right sure if her bed was sold and anybody else slept in it. . . . I reckon we better have all her things put in storage somewhere.”

Cut medium slices of bread and trim off the crusts. Toast the bread very lightly and lay on a baking sheet, cover the slices with very thinly sliced sharp American cheese and set under the broiler long enough to toast brightly. Remove from the broiler and dust with a little cayenne pepper and salt and serve at once.

  - Coffee, Tea, Milk
- Lentil Soup.
- Take 1 cup lentils, 3 cups milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 pints water (or stock), 1 onion, 1 carrot, 3 stalks celery, 1 tablespoon flour, salt and pepper to taste, ½ cup cream. I cooked lentils overnight in the fireless cooker. The next day cut onion, celery and carrot in small pieces, put in a saucepan with butter, cover and cook gently for 15 minutes. Add water (or stock) and simmer gently for two hours. Rub this, with the lentils, through a sieve.
- Return to pan, add milk, seasonings and bring to boil. Moisten flour with ¼ cup milk, add it to soup and simmer 10 minutes. Add cream. Serve hot.
- When fireless cooker is not used, cook lentils until tender with the vegetables. Soak lentils overnight.
- Potatoes and Peas en Casserole.
- Mash 4 medium-sized potatoes and line a well-buttered casserole with them, leaving a space in the center sufficiently large to hold one small can of peas. Drain liquid from peas and mix into peas piece of butter size of walnut, salt and pepper; brush potatoes over with milk and bake in rather quick oven until nicely browned.

FASHION FRILLS

NEW YORK—Blue, white and gold is the attractive combination exemplified in one of the ensemble suits seen today. It consists of a pleated skirt and long coat with a slightly fitted back, notched collar and flap pockets of navy blue charmeuse. The coat is worn over an overblouse of white silk embroidered in gold.

PARIS—Some at least of the Parisian designers have realized the anachronism of sport costumes for those who take part in sports. The new “sport” dresses of these artists, therefore, are merely charming simple walking dresses enhanced with leather belts, a few embroideries and well-placed pockets.

LONDON—The costume dress has come into full favor at the January functions in London, especially the bouffant type. The spreading skirts of that style usually are quilted much in the manner of an old-time bedspread.

NEW YORK—The vague for gloves! lingerie and for linen underthings has been increased because of the growing number of women who wear rubber reducing girdles. The pressure of the latter necessitates a perfectly fitting, soft material beneath to avoid discomfort.

To Replace Old Sleeves

INvariably the sleeves of a dress are worn out while the rest of it is practically new, and as many women find it difficult to make new ones, they are at a loss what to do with the dress. Now they need no longer hesitate about substituting new sleeves, for the department stores carry a full line of sleeves of all colors and styles, which can easily be put into any dress.

Each number in the puzzle indicates the position of the first letter of a word.
Each word reads from left to right (horizontal) or downward (vertical), according to position. Lettered in correctly, words that cross will interlock.
Each number in the white squares also refers to a definition in the accompanying table.
Each definition suggests a word possessing the exact number of letters to fit the white space allotted to it.
Each white space is to receive one letter only. Words start only in numbered squares.

Notes about Women
In Rumania women are employed as builders, and, with their skirts tucked up, climb ladders with pails of cement or loads of brick just like the men.
Mrs. Margot Asquith, wife of the former British Premier, has announced her willingness to appear on the stage, providing a suitable part can be found for her.
Miss Isabel Darlington has been made receiver of a closed national bank of Parkersburg, Pa. She is an aunt of Gen. Butler, Director of Public Safety in Philadelphia.
More than half the States do not permit women to sit on juries.
Gertrude Atherton, the author, is a great-granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin.
Nearly one-half the women in Washington, D. C., are engaged in gainful occupations.
Nurses in the Cumberland Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., are being taught to fight with their fists as well as medicine, a pugilist having been engaged to teach them the rudiments of the boxing game.
Women practically boss the town of Lackawanna, Pa., three of the four general stores there being owned by women, while the only clerk in the fourth is a girl. The only hotel is operated by a woman and a woman is postmaster.

Tips to Home Dress-makers
Are you one of those women who always have to hunt for the scissors when you want them? Tie a bright colored ribbon on the handle and you will readily see them, even when almost buried among other articles. It will be a time saver.
Now is the time to make up undergarments. The plisses are most popular for this purpose. These are those pretty, wrinkled, corrugated cottons that have a puckered appearance and come in all the pastel colorings. Satens, especially in stripes, are also much in demand and can be had in all desirable colors.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

The Housewife's Bugbear.
If called to the door or telephone just as you were about to ice the cake, lay a damp cloth over the top of the bowl containing the frosting. This will prevent its hardening in the short interval.

Planned in Advance.
There is no doubt the table that is planned a week in advance will be the most economical and varied of any. Of course, we cannot always keep exactly to our original plans, for no housewife can judge exactly the amount of things left over, but the outline could then be carried over a few days and the following week's meals will be simplified.

For the Housewives.
Woodenware should dry slowly so as not to crack.
A folded envelope will answer the purpose of a shoehorn when traveling.
A little borax sprinkled under the rugs will act as a preventive against moths.
Cool all foods before putting them into the refrigerator. It is better for the food and much easier on the ice bill.

FAMOUS WOMEN

JEANNE OF NAVARRE.
JEANNE OF FRANCE AND NAVARRE was the wife of Philip IV, the Fair, of France, and the only child and heiress of Henry I, King of Navarre and Count of Champagne. The Count de Bar having attacked Champagne, she placed herself at the head of a small army, captured him and held him prisoner for a long time. She founded the famous College of Navarre, and died at Vincennes in 1384, at the age of 33. Her husband was devoted to her and never took the title of King of Navarre, and to all his ordinances he added that he acted with the concurrence of his dear companion, and Jeanne added her seal to that of her husband. She was married at 13 and bore her husband seven children.

I Paid $10

For lipsticks—$5 for powders.

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I am extravagant, as we all are on the stage or in the movies. Our career depends on looks. So it matters not how much we pay for real beautifiers.
I have always had everything made to my order, and by the greatest experts I could find. I paid $10 for lipsticks, $5 for powder, to get the best they knew.
Then I began to supply my beauty helps to women. They wanted my powders, too. So I arranged with the makers to supply them in enormous lots at very modest prices.
Now all druggists and toilet counters supply the very powders that I use. They are matchless creations, as fine as vapor, as harmless as dew. The richest woman can find nothing better, whatever price she pays.
I have these powders made in two types. One is a heavy, cold cream powder, in square box—the type I prefer. It clings and stays. That costs $1 per box. It is called my Youth Cream Powder.
But I have the gem, powder made light and fluffy, in round box, for those who prefer that type. That sells for 50¢ per box.
Let me send you samples of both. Compare them with other powders. Decide which you prefer.
I promise you a new conception of face powder. Clip coupon now.

Why the Cousins Ended Their Quarrel

When common danger doth attend All private quarrels quickly end.

THE quarreling cousins, Billy Mink and Shadow the Weasel, had disappeared as if by magic. One instant they had been snarling at each other and looking as if at any second they might spring at each other's throat, and the next instant they had disappeared. It was almost unbelievable. Peter began to wonder if he had been asleep and dreamed that he saw those two cousins quarreling. He rubbed his eyes. And then, happening to look up, he saw Terror the Coshawk just disappearing over the tree tops.

The banks of the Laughing Brook appeared as deserted as if no living thing had ever been there. It was still hard for Peter to believe that he had seen Billy Mink and Shadow the Weasel quarreling there. Then as suddenly as they had disappeared both appeared again. Billy Mink suddenly popped into view much nearer Peter than he had been. He seemed to have forgotten all about Shadow the Weasel. For he came running along the bank, looking into every little hole just as he had been doing when Peter first saw him.

Looking up the Laughing Brook, Peter saw Shadow the Weasel going on his way, just as if nothing had happened. Peter was thankful that Shadow was going up the Laughing Brook, for Peter shivered a little and began to run faster.

One housewife, when she fries doughnuts, adds a cup of beef fat which has recently been tried out, and she gives this as the reason why her doughnuts are not greasy.

To avoid the lumps in gravy put salt in the flour before adding the water.

When using celery for flavor soup, stew, etc., do not put it in until about half an hour before serving, thus giving it just sufficient time to cook thoroughly. If put in too early very little of the flavor remains.

Vinegar in the fat in which you fry the doughnuts? Put in one tablespoonful and the doughnuts will not absorb the fat.

Simple Way to Get Rid of Blackheads
There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of salicylic powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Bar blackheads little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The salicylic powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

"Don't worry, my dear"

IT was an important social occasion the younger girl had been planning on for a long time.

And now, just a week or so before the big event, that old throat irritation came back again and threatened to ruin her party.

She was completely upset over it all. Her older friend knew what to do, however. And everything turned out all right.

It isn't necessary to let sore throat throw you out of step with work or play.

Guard against this trouble by taking the simple precaution of using Listerine, the safe antiseptic, as a preventive for throat irritations and the more serious ills that so often follow.

Have Listerine handy always in your bathroom. It is the ideal, safe antiseptic. Its dozens of different uses are fully described in the circular that comes around each bottle.—Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, Saint Louis, U. S. A.

LISTERINE Throat Tablets, containing the antiseptic oil of Eucalypti, are now available. While we firmly advise that no tablet or candy lozenge can correct halitosis, the Listerine antiseptic oil in these tablets are very valuable as a relief for throat irritation.

BILL WOULD PERMIT RAC BETTING MISSOURI

Measure in House Pro for 30-Day Meets, License at $1000 a and Levy on Admiss

GAMBLING SECTION DRAWS CRITIC

It Would Allow Opera of Pools "by Mechan or Other Means" — Bookmaking Evil Fea

By CURTIS A. BETTS, Staff Correspondent of the Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 23.—The anticipated bill to legalize Oregon horse races in Missouri introduced in the House today by Representative Harper of Vernon County, in a form which senators who examined the measure said would require amendment to make it legal also to avoid the old-time system of bookmaking at race tracks which was legislated out of existence in this State in 1905.

The measure, as has been stated, provides for the licensing of the State of persons, associations or corporations to conduct more than two race meets of 30 days each in one year. The State is to receive a fee of $1000 for each day of racing and an additional 25 cents each paid admission, to be divided equally between the Agricultural College of the State and the State Board of Agriculture. The money is to be used to improve and develop the livestock of the State.

It is the section regulating racing of wagers on the races which has come up for criticism this early in the proceedings.

Section Regarding Betting.
This section reads: "The State Agricultural Experimenters' Commission is hereby authorized to permit such persons, associations, corporations or other qualified under this act as may license thereunder to conduct mutual or co-operative pools on such races as they may desire. They shall be permitted to record such pools by mechanical means, to issue a receipt for those subscribing to such pool and to deduct from such pool a reasonable percentage, not to exceed 5 per cent and breakage on suitable stakes and purses. Such pools shall not be conducted in violation of sections 2 and 2226 of the revised statutes of the State of Missouri, 1919, or any other sections thereof, and the sections are to be regarded as continuing in full force and effect inoperative as against any person, co-partnership, corporation or association licensed under the terms of this act."

Amendments Proposed.
Senator McCawley of Carroll County, after an examination of the measure, said that in his opinion the section would neither relieve the state making pools on races from the provisions of the gambling law of the State, nor would it limit making of pools to the pari-mutuel system, which it has been understood would be proposed in the measure.

"To limit the system to the pari-mutuel," Senator McCawley said, "would appear to me to be necessary to amend the bill to that effect. Instead of permit, the word should be recorded, and also to amend the words 'or other means' which would leave the question that the pools must be recorded by mechanical means."

"Those two amendments would, I believe, make it a pari-mutuel system."

The pari-mutuel system mechanically records bets and the winner is determined by the amount wagered.

"The other question is, purely technical. The Constitution of the State sets out the method which the laws may be amended. It proposes to relieve persons making pools at races under its pari-mutuel statute, and seeks to do so by a mere reference to the statute."

"I believe it will be found that cannot be done in that manner; our Constitution, the only way it can be amended is by repealing sections 2225 and 2226. It would be much as the person operating under it those sections were repealed. Prosecuting attorney might be interested in that."
